NOTE: Salvation is for all, but Yehshua came to the Jews in keeping with the covenant (Daniel 9:24-27). The Jews were proud of the first place they occupied and did not integrate the knowledge of Elohim to the Gentiles, but segregated them. Yehshua used this term simply as a test to the woman: she humbled herself and in a logical way won the Saviours favor and received healing for her daughter. It's a lesson of humility for us all.

Titus 1:9-11.
12. Since Paul does not admonish us to pay no heed to those who would teach us things which neither Messiah nor the Apostles have given us, what is the final word? Romans 3:4; II John 10:11

NOTE: Paul makes it plain that anything that is in addition to the doctrine of Messiah as set forth by the apostles is heresy, and is tradition of men. There are a good many traditions in the world today that are supposed to be Messiahian doctrines. A safe criterion in this case is this: Is it mentioned in the Bible? Do we have Bible authority for it?
