EXPLAINING FRONT PAGE PICTURE

In the foreground you see a portion of the east wall around the Old City, and to your right is the Golden gate, the Eastern gate, through which Yahshua (Jesus) passed riding upon an ass as prophesied by Zechariah chapter 9 verse 9, recorded also in Mathew 21: 4 to 9. Ezekiel said this gate would be closed and never opened, because the Lord passed through it (Ezekiel 44: 1 to 3). Note the Mohammedan cemetery surrounding the gate. This has kept it closed and no man has ever passed through.

THE PASSOVER AND LORD'S SUPPER

By ELDER A. F. DUGGER Sr. (Deceased)

From an Advocate of May 23, 1882

Brother Dugger, permit me to ask you a question, which you will please answer through the Advocate. In Luke 22: 7, 8, we learn that the disciples prepared the passover. In the 15th v. we learn that Christ ate the passover. From reading the same chapter we learn that it must have been at least the ninth hour of the day when He died. From John 19: 31 we learn that He was crucified on the preparation day. Was the proper time for the Passover before His crucifixion or after? — J. B. Denham.

The subject of the Passover seems to be eliciting the attention of our brethren generally. Several well written editorials and articles have recently appeared in the columns of the "Advocate". Brother W. O. Munroe's article, which appeared in "Advocate", Vol. 16, No. 51, is timely, and deserves a special reading by all thinking Christians. The subject is important, and therefore is entitled to a portion of our time and attention. It is by some, thought to be quite complicated in its nature. Yet I think if we give it the sober thought, serious reflection, and candid investigation, that its worthiness demands, it will appear otherwise.

The question propounded by Brother Denham is simply a request for more light touching a practical theme, and a desire to have it written out and published in the "Advocate" for future reference and for examination at his leisure hours. I most cheerfully comply with the request, to others. However, if anyone can show a "more excellent way," I stand ready to accept it.

The word "Passover" is used to represent (1) the passing over of the destroying angel. (2) The paschal lamb. (3) The meal at which it was eaten. (4) The festival instituted in memory of the coming out of Egypt and the passage of the destroying angel. (5) For all the victims offered during the paschal solemnity. (6) The unleavened bread eaten during the eight days of the Passover. (7) For all the ceremonies of this solemnity.

These various meanings occur in the usage of the word as found in the writings of Moses, Josephus, and other Jewish writers. Some, overlooking this fact, have denied that our Savior, the last year of His life, ate the legal paschal meal, while skeptics allege that John not only contradicts the other evangelists, but also himself.

Matthew, Mark, and Luke, positively assert that our Savior did eat the paschal supper with His disciples just before His crucifixion. ^① Matthew testifies that Christ said to His disciples: "My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at thy house with my disciples" (Matt. 26: 18). The 20th and 21st verses read: "Now when the even was come He sat down with the twelve; and as they did eat (the paschal meal) He said: "Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray Me" ^② Mark says: "They made ready the Passover. And in the evening He (Christ) ^③

Luke adds: "And when the hour was come He (Christ) sat down, and the twelve apostles with Him. And He (Christ) said unto them: 'With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer'." — Luke 22: 14, 15.

These testimonies are decisive in their character, and positively establish the affirmation to be a fact that Christ did observe the legal and Jewish Passover just before His crucifixion. John says: "Now before the feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved His own which were in the world, He loved them unto the end". — John 13: 1.

From this verse, and a few others which we will examine, some infer that Jesus did not partake the paschal meal, while scoffers assert that John boldly contradicts the other New Testament writers. The fact is, John has reference not to the Passover supper, but to the Passover feast of days, the word Passover being used in its fourth sense, having reference to the observance of the festival institution in memory of the coming out of Egypt.

Again, in the 18th ch., 28th v., we have this reading: "Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment; and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the Passover". As Jesus is here held in custody, and as those by whom He is held, had not yet eaten the Passover, it is therefore inferred that Christ had not and did not eat the Passover before his death; which to say the least, is a very rash inference in the face of such positive evidence as Matthew, Mark, and Luke furnish, that He did celebrate the paschal meal with His disciples just prior to His death. The fact of their not having observed it does not militate against the fact of the Savior having celebrated it, as He observed it in the first and on the last hours of the 14th of Nisan.

The facts in the case are these: 1st, they divided up into different companies to eat the paschal lamp; 2nd, they did not all eat the Passover supper in the self same hour. Let these facts be remembered and all will be clear, or at least it is to my mind.

There is another text found in the writings of John, which under this head, demands a passing notice. The text reads as follows: "The Jews, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath day (for that Sabbath day was an high day), (hence not the weekly Sabbath, the seventh day, commonly called Saturday) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away". — John 19: 31.

This is thought by the objector to show that Christ was crucified before the paschal meal was prepared. The preparation spoken of in this verse, also in Matt. 27: 62, is called "the day of the preparation"; and in John 19: 14 it is styled the "preparation of the Passover". The word Passover being used in its 6th sense for the feast of unleavened bread.

See Luke 22: 1: "Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover".

Now for the facts as presented in the sacred histories of the evangelists: 1st, at the close of the 13th of Nisan, as the feast of unleavened bread approached, Jesus ordered that the lamb for the Passover supper should be prepared; 2nd, His disciples, in accordance with His directions, prepared the lamb and provided a place, which, being ready, He and His disciples, after sunset of the 13th, which was the beginning of the 14th, ate the Passover supper, in connection with which He instituted the communion services.

After this, sometime in the course of the night, He was arrested; the next morning was brought before the civil authorities, condemned, and in the afternoon of the 14th day was crucified, and buried in the closing moments of (that) day, which was on the eve of the preparation for the ("high day") or annual Sabbath, and also of the festival.

These facts, in connection with the various uses of the word Passover, to my mind wholly clears away the mist which papal Rome has enshrouded this subject.

The institution of the Passover deserves a brief notice. It was instituted as a memorial of Israel's coming out of Egypt. The Israelites came out of Egypt in the month Nisan. As the Hebrew months answer partially to two of our months, the end of one and the beginning of the other, Nisan corresponds to a part of our March and a part of our April. Nisan was the seventh month of the civil year, according to the Egyptian's method of computation. The Egyptians began the year at the month Tishri (September) which reckoning the Israelites followed. When God brought them out of Egypt He reversed this order, and said unto Moses and Aaron: "This month shall be unto you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year unto you". — Ex. 12: 1, 2.

This language seems to be emphatic, and to constitute the divine arrangement for the commencement of the year. We see no valid reason for beginning the year in January or September. The month Nisan, or first month, begins with the new moon nearest the vernal equinox. We count 14 days from the new moon whether the change is before or after the sun crosses the equinoctial, or what is commonly called "Crossing the line"; and this count brings us to the time of celebrating the paschal meal, which was on the 14th of the 1st month. On the 10th day the lamb was separated from the flock, v. 3; on the 14th day of the same month it was slain in the evening, v. 6, or as given in the margin, "between the two evenings"; that is, between 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 6 in the evening.

In Matt. 27: 46 we read: "About the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice: 'My God, my God, why has thou forsaken me?' After the lapse of some time He cried again, v. 50, and gives up the ghost. The 9th hour corresponds with our 3 o'clock in the afternoon. As the paschal lamb was offered up as a type of the offering up of Christ, and was put to death between the two evenings, so was Christ, its great antitype.

Between the sun's decline, 3 p.m., and 6 in the evening, was undoubtedly the proper time for the Passover; but as the Lord's Supper was to take the place of the legal Passover, and was an institution designed to have a place in the new covenant (in its incipient stage), it was absolutely necessary that it should be instituted before the confirmation of said covenant, which was confirmed when the blood of the Testator was shed. Paul states that when a covenant is once confirmed no man disannuleth or addeth thereto (Gal. 3: 15); hence Christ and His apostles, as we have already seen, observed it the beginning of the 14th of Nisan; so when His blood was shed it was sealed up as a new covenant institution, and had the high sanction of His having both instituted and observed it.

Many writers have strained the resemblance between the type and the antitype into many fanciful particulars. We should be careful in this respect.

The plain facts which stand out prominently in the sacred historic pages are that the paschal lamb was a type of Christ, and that it was slain upon the 14th day of the first month; that Christ, the Lamb of God, is the antitype, and that He was slain upon the 14th day of the same month, and that He is now "our Passover" (1 Cor. 5: 7); that it is our duty to "keep the feast", v. 8; both as regards the time and elements. He kept it on the 14th day of the 1st month, simply making a change in the elements but no change in the reference to the time.

Brother Denham's question could have been answered in fewer words, but as the question is important, and one, too, which furnishes food for thought, I have written quite a lengthy article, for my own enlightenment and also for the instruction of others; for if I am not correct I wish to be corrected.

In conclusion I will say to those who have sent me questions, and perhaps have given up even seeing an answer, that if the Lord will, they will all be answered in time. I have had this question on hand near two months. The fact is, I have but very little time just now for writing, and have not had for some time past. I love to receive your questions. I only regret my lack of time and want of ability to do them justice. I am proud of our paper the "Advocate"; it seems to grow better every day. Brethren, let us do all we can to sustain it.

DANIEL AND MOSES

Seventy-one years ago, my father, a Jew, gave me his old Bible. A few years later, after he died, I opened the old book, and as my eyes fell upon the last chapter of Daniel, to my great surprise I found written across the last chapter, in my father's well known hand writing, the following: "The world war will take place on 1912 to 1914". He arrived at these figures from Daniel 12: 11, 12, and Leviticus 26: 24, the 7 times or 2520 years. Its beginning was 606 B.C. when with Nebuchadnezzar's first capture of Jerusalem. — Ezek. 4: 5, 6, a day for a year.

Owing to threats of war at that time, the nations were seeking a formula for world peace, and much was going through the daily papers on this subject. The leading educators and statesmen of that time were quite unanimously agreed that by means of civilization and education, the world was to no more indulge in war and bloodshed as it had during the past, and I was quite well agreed with them.

Therefore, having great confidence in my father's knowledge of the Bible, I regretted that he had made such a statement. Upon careful examination, however, of the evidence he published in other writings, I was convinced that surely there was to be a war in the very near future, and it came as everyone knows who is acquainted with history. War started in the Balkans in 1912 and spread to the first world war of 1914.

His writings having come true so precisely, I was led to make a thorough study of many prophecies and found that the prophecies of Israel's prophets were truly inspired from above, that they were indeed led by the voice of God. Not one has failed to come to pass. Hence we may depend on the prophecy given by Ezekiel 38th chapter concerning Russia. Do not fear, Israel is here to stay. Russia will be smitten and largely destroyed, when she comes against Israel which she is now threatening to do. These final events just before our Messiah comes are real and imminent.

Latter Day False Prophets

By the Editor

Our beloved Messiah and soon coming King warned us that in the end of this age, just before He returned there would be many false prophets arise, who would deceive if possible the very elect. — Matt. 24: 24.

All of these many false prophets hate the Sabbath, and many are making most vicious and deceptive attacks on this holy time sanctified and set apart by our mighty Creator God when He made the world. As a test of His infallibility He has preserved this very day to our time, and not permitted it to be lost. He has given us unrefutable evidence that the weekly cycle of seven days has never been lost, or any portion of it changed, regardless of the false claims of these false-prophets. Their arguments to the contrary, like straws crumble and brake, before the powerful searchlight of truth.

In Luke 23: 56 it says that the holy women kept the (Sabbath) according to the Commandment. Over (fifty) times in the New Testament the Holy Spirit mentioned this seventh day and called it the Sabbath. In Matt. 28: 1 the Holy Spirit said it was the day before the first day of the week. The writer has a calendar that begins back one hundred years before Christ, and gives the day of the week the day occurred, when the day of the month is stated. The Jews in their dispersion all over the world, have observed the Sabbath in every country and island of the sea, without any connections between them, for almost two thousand years, when there were no telephones, radios, etc.

Now they have returned here from every country on earth, without any confusion over the day. They all came back keeping the very same day of the week for the Sabbath.

These (false) prophets will tell you that the week has been confused and the days changed, which is absolutely false. They say that certain days were added to certain months which has disrupted our present weekly cycle, and desiring to be on the side with the big crowd, they take the day of the Sun anciently chosen by the Babylonian heathens, and christened by Rome for their day of rest.

We have had one day added to our calendar every fourth year, known as "Leap Year", for many hundred years, but it never alters or changes the weekly cycle, as everyone knows. Yet these false prophets, tell you that an addition of days to a month changes the weekly cycle. Many of them know that this theory is false.

Having Pleasure in Unrighteousness

Those having pleasure in unrighteousness are to be destroyed at the brightness of His coming. With all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish because they receive NOT THE LOVE OF THE TRUTH... for this cause God shall send them strong delusion that they should believe a lie, that they might all be damned who believe not the truth, but HAVE PLEASURE IN UNRIGHTEOUSNESS'. — 2 Thes 2:10 to 12.

I have just received on my desk one of the most deceptive sheets I have seen for a long time, and some new lines of deception by misquotations of the holy Bible, to make void the Ten Commandments law, for the one and only purpose of destroying the Sabbath day, sanctified at creation, for the good of all men, and preserved by the Creator's unchangeable and infallible power. These Ten Commandments written by His own finger on tables of stone were to last for one thousand generations (Deut 7: 9), and it has not been one hundred generations to [this] time. David declared they would stand forever. — Psalm 111: 7 to 10.

But these false prophets of our day, tell you they were nailed to the cross and ended nearly two thousand years ago. Who are we to believe these men, or the Creator Himself?

First they say Sunday was substituted for the ancient Sabbath by the resurrection of Christ on that day. They also teach that He was crucified on Friday and resurrected on Sunday, which true would prove Him to be an imposter, and not the Saviour. The only sign He gave that He was the Messiah, the Son of God, is given in Matt. 12: 40, that He would be in the earth three days and three nights. There are not three days and three nights between Friday and Sunday morning. He was not even found in the tomb Sunday morning, but was gone when the visitors came. He was resurrected, however, on the end of the Sabbath, as it was drawing on toward the first day of the week. — Matt. 28:

Then this writer misquotes Hebrews 4: 8. The text reads: "If Jesus had given them rest, they would He not afterward have spoken of another day". He misquotes it thus "if Yahshua has given them rest, He would not have afterward spoken of another day"; How deceptive. In the 4th verse of this chapter it says that God rested on the seventh day, and in verse ten we are told to cease from our work as God did from His".

This sheet does not give the name of the writer, but he sure is one of wrestlers of Paul's writing to destroy himself and others, according to the warning of the great Pentecost preacher given to us in the last verses of the last chapter of this last book. — 2 Peter 3: 15, 16.

He says: "In Paul's writings are hard things to understand, and they that are unlearned are unstable WREST as they do other scripture their own destruction".

That is exactly what this writer is doing. He is quoting Paul's writings and wresting them away with the Ten Commandments, and thus making sinners. It is sin that destroys people.

Note that there are two classes spoken of here. One unlearned, which he may be. The other unstable (a false prophet). He is one of the two classes, but even if he does this ignorantly the apostle says it is his destruction.

This man either unlearned, or a false prophet, quotes Gal. 5: 4 adding that if we keep the law we are fallen from grace. Anyone can quickly note the context here which he leaves out, and they will see that the law referred to here is the "Law of Moses written in a book and having a hundred and more commandments for it teaches Circumcision. There is nothing said about circumcision in the Ten Commandment law. He also quotes Romans 10: 4, that Christ is the end of the law for righteousness, and makes the claim that the Ten Commandments thus ended, just to get rid of the Sabbath.

Christ is the end of the law for righteousness, but not for those who love "Unrighteousness", and want to keep Sunday, and desecrate the true Sabbath. He is the end of the law, the end of the penalties of the law, for by His blood we are forgiven of our sins which were hanging to us, before we accepted His pardon by faith in His shed blood.

Every one of Paul's writings he mentions are just as easily and correctly applied as this one, in a way that will not make sinners, by wresting them to their own destruction. Send for our tract, "What was abolished by Christ". It will be sent to you free. Those who have pleasure in UNRIGHTEOUSNESS however will not care to make this investigation.

If we want to be approved by the Almighty Creator we will study to rightly divide the Holy Scriptures. — 2 Tim. 2: 15.

This man is not one approved of Heaven because he is wresting Paul's writings to his own destruction, mixing up the laws that Moses wrote with the only one the Creator wrote on tables of stone with His own finger.

Those who break one of the least of the Ten Commandments and teach men so will be the least in the kingdom, tares gathered out and cast in the fire. — Matt. 5: 18, 19; 13: 41, 42.

In the New Testament we read: "He that saith I know Him, and keepeth not His Commandments is a LIAR and the truth is not in Him". — 1 John 2: 4.

"Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth the law, for sin is the transgression of the Law". — 1 John 3: 4.

James 2: 10, 11 says "If you keep all of this law and offend in one point you are guilty of all. — Editor.

VOLUNTEER WILLING WORKERS

There is something every servant of our beloved Master can do. He said that "After a long time He was coming to reckon with His servants." — Matt. 25:19.

One thing that many Sisters can do is to go from house to house, give some good tracts to the people, and gather up good out grown childrens clothing etc., and send a box over to Jerusalem for the poor. We can use much of it here:

The Holy Spirit

By Elder Kenneth H. Freeman

1. What assurance did Jesus give to His disciples as to a continuing presence, even though He Himself would not be with them?

— John 14: 16, 17, 25, 26.

2. What are some of the works the Holy Spirit would perform?

— John 16: 13; Acts 1: 8.

3. Was this promise of the Holy Spirit made only to the disciples of Jesus' day?

— Acts 2: 38, 39; John 14: 16.

4. Admittedly there is much counterfeit of the manifestations and gifts of the Holy Spirit in our day, but need we fear that a counterfeit would be given to us if we ask for this blessing?

— Luke 11: 11-13.

5. What are at least two of the main requirements needed to receive the Holy Spirit?

— Acts 5:32; Heb. 11: 6; James 1:6.

6. In the old part of the Bible, commonly called the Old Testament, the Holy Spirit came upon certain people for a specific purpose.

— Exodus 31:3; Number 24:2; Judges 3:10.

7. Even in those ancient times, did certain believers have the blessing of the Holy Spirit within them?

— Psalm 51:11; 2 Peter 1:21.

8. Was there a distinction between this working of the Holy Spirit and that which was to come after Jesus had been glorified?

— John 7:37-39; Acts 1:8.

9. What reassuring promise did Jesus make with His disciples before His death, and again after His resurrection?

John 14:25, 26; 15:26; 16:7, 12-14; Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4-8.

10. When the Holy Spirit came on the Day of Pentecost in fulfillment of this promise of Christ, how did Peter explain this?

— Acts 2:14-21.

11. Is the baptism of the Holy Spirit an additional and sometimes a separate experience to that of conversion?

— Acts 8:14, 15; 19:1-6.

12. Although the followers of Christ were admonished by Him to "...tarry ye... until ye be endued with power from on high", was this type of tarrying necessary after the Holy Spirit came on the Day of Pentecost? Sivan 6 date

— Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4.

— Acts 10:44-47; see also the retelling of this experience in Acts 11:15-17.

13. What are the gifts of the Spirit? What are the fruit of the Spirit?

— ~~1 Cor. 12:7-10; Gal. 5:22, 23.~~ (It is easily discerned that the gifts of the Spirit are not the same as the fruit of the Spirit.)

14. Should we have a desire to possess the gifts of the Spirit?

— ~~1 Cor. 12:7-10, 29-31.~~

15. Although one person may possess two or more of the gifts of the Spirit, how did Paul speak of the manifestation of the Spirit's gifts? — I Cor. 12:29-31.

Summary. — The work of the Holy Spirit in the New Testament should cause us to better appreciate the great love the Almighty has for His children. First, the Holy Spirit works in the regenerating of the believer (John 3:3, 5). Second, every child of God has the indwelling of the Holy Spirit (I Cor. 6:19; 3:16; Romans 8:9; I Cor. 12:3). Third, the child of God is "sealed with that Holy Spirit of Promise" (Eph. 1:13, 14); when the Holy Spirit bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God (Romans 8:16).

But there is a deeper walk with our Creator than that of repentance, conversion, baptism, and the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives. It is the will of the Father and of the Son that we be filled with power in order that we might effectively witness for Him, and that we come behind in no gift.

No child of God should fear to ask the Father for the Holy Spirit thinking that they might receive a counterfeit. Study prayerfully Luke 11:11-13. Nor should a child of God be afraid that he could not control himself mentally or emotionally while under the power of the Holy Spirit, for "the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets". — I Cor. 14:32.

We need to tread very reverently when we study, or teach or preach on the subject of the Holy Spirit. It is possible to grieve the Holy Spirit (Eph. 4:30, 31). It is possible to lie to the Holy Spirit (Acts 5:3, 4). It is possible to quench the Holy Spirit (1 Thess. 5:19). It is possible to resist the Holy Spirit (Acts 7:51). Is it any wonder then that Jesus so solemnly warned of the sin that cannot be forgiven, and that that sin could be committed by our tongues? (Mtat. 12:31, 32).

Let us rejoice in that great truth our Savior gave us: "...how much more shall your Father which is in Heaven give good things to them that ask Him?" (Matt. 7:11.).

TWO PROPHECIES BY TWO GREAT JEWS, FULFILLING NOW, After Nearly 2000 Years

"They (the Jews) shall fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem shall be trodden down by the Gentiles UNTIL the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled". — The book of Luke, chapter 21, verse 24.

"Blindness in part hath happened to Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles comes in". — The book of Romans, chapter 11, verse 25.

How wonderful to be living now and to see these prophecies and so many others by these two great Jewish prophets being so definitely fulfilled before our eyes.

How true that most Jews in Israel believe Yahshua (Jesus), was a good man, and a great prophet. This being true as it is, then his prophecy concerning his returning with all the holy angels in power and glory will soon come to pass He told us definitely and repeatedly that his return would be when all nations were gathered against Judah and Jerusalem. That is now in definite preparation. — Editor.

Questions And Answers

QUESTION. —

There is very much being said and printed now about the real name of the Father and the Son. It is confusing, and causing strife and division in some places. What is your opinion about this question?

ANSWER. —

My opinion unless backed up by the holy Scripture, is worthless. What people think about questions of sacred importance is deceptive and misleading. The Bible must give the answer. Romans 2: 1, 2 tells us that unto the Jews were committed the oracles of God, and St. John 4:22 says that "Salvation is of the Jews".

When Israel came out of Egypt nearly six thousands years ago the High Priest had the Father's name on his miter. The name has also been handed down through various channels. It is absurd for anyone to believe that the mighty Creator of Heaven and earth does not have a name. All who believe and read the Bible fully understand that He has a name.

In Proverbs 30: 4 the question is asked: "What is His name, and what is His Son's name?"

Then in Psalms 91: 14 it says of the righteous, they will be delivered because they know His name. Isaiah says of this time when the Creator brings again Zion: "My people shall know My name". — 52: 6, 9 = 52: 8

If the reader of these lines is one of the Father's children, he will know the Father's name. In Psalm 68: 4 it is abbreviated and given as "Jah", pronounced something like the word "Jehovah", but like "Yah", with the adding three letters in the word "Jehovah". Yah - Weh

Everyone knows that the word "God" and "Lord" are not names any more than the words "Father" and "Son" are names. Reader, your father has a name, and your son has a name, and the words father and son, are not their names. Neither are the words God and Lord the names of the Heavenly Father and His Son.

When Bibles were translated from the Hebrew and the Greek into the various languages, the translator would not use a Hebrew word. Should he have done so his Bible would not have been accepted by the people of that tongue, because of world's hate of the Jews. The Roman Empire, ruling the world during that period was at war with Jerusalem and the Jews. — Acts 18: 2.

The name of the Father, which all should know, is HOLY. It should not be used promiscuously, and written and printed profusely. The Jews never speak it only in prayers, and once a year in the synagogue. They never put it on paper for fear it will be desecrated, by use in toilets, etc. We admire them for this careful preservation of something very holy.

It sure is not a sin for anyone to study and want to learn the names for the Father and the Son. Neither is it a sin or wrong for people to use the Son's name which is "Yahshua", and means Salvation in the Hebrew language. It is a sin, however, to strive and argue, and divide over these names. Paul commands us to preach and teach "doctrine", and in the same verse he commands us to be "long suffering". — 2 Tim. 4: 2.

If some want to use the Son's name let them use it. It is good to use it. If others use the English substitute "Jesus" or "Christ", by which use everyone knows who we are speaking of, let them use it without condemnation, or passing judgment. People in general would not know who we were speaking of, if we just used the Son's real name, without explaining it.

The Son's name as known by his mother and his playmates around Nazareth was "Yahshua" meaning (in) the Hebrew "Salvation", for which purpose he came. He told Paul His name was "Yahshua" when He spoke to Paul from heaven, because it says He spoke in the Hebrew tongue. — Acts 26: 14.

More than 500 different languages have given this some other word besides that which the Saviour spoke, for He spoke Hebrew. Yahshua is the name in Hebrew, as all who know the Hebrew language will tell you, and it has always been the same in the Hebrew.

Our Saviour never called His Father by His name, but spoke of Him more respectfully, calling Him "Father". If we are His children then He is our Father, and we should also show Him proper love and respect by calling Him "Father". I am sure that none of those who read this would speak to, or of their own father in the disrespectful manner of calling Him by His name. — Editor.

QUESTION. —

How does Israel deal with gangsters? Could gangsters move in and take over like they do in some large cities of the U.S.? Is there a strong Union set up in Israel? — G. L. H.

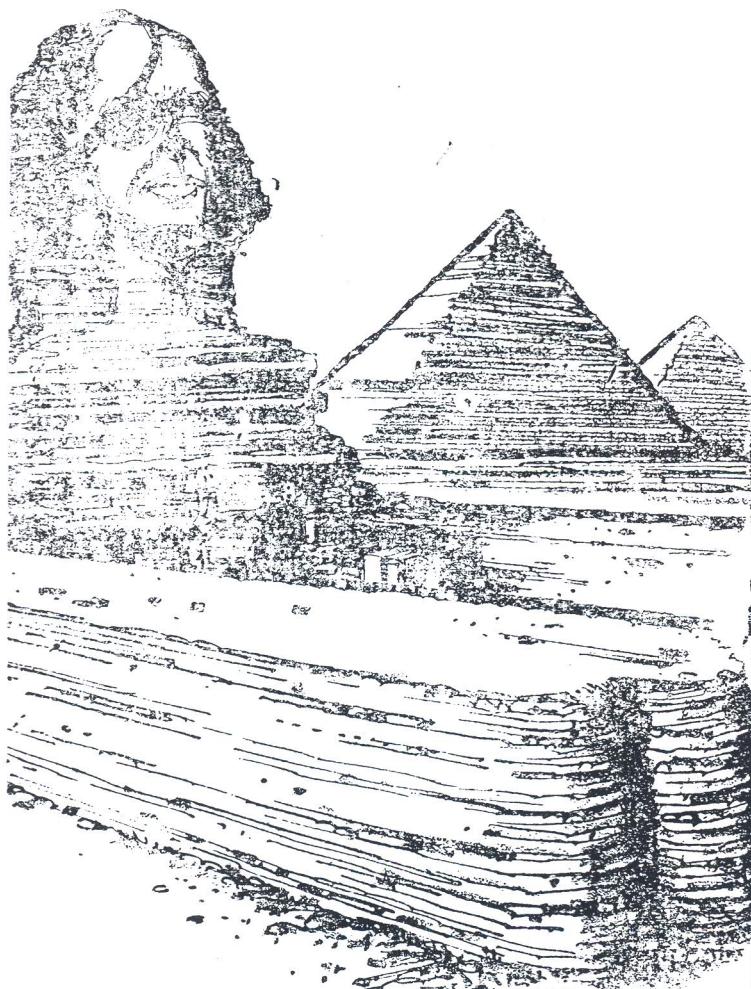

ANSWER. —

There are some law-breakers in Israel, and they have a general prison, but there is less violence and crime here than in any other country of its size, I am sure. There are no gangsters running loose. The religious Orthodox cause some trouble in Jerusalem occasionally in their efforts for a more strict observance of the Sabbath. There are also Labour Unions here, but people who do not want to join a Union are not forced to do so.

LIFT UP YOUR HANDS

"Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord. The Lord that made heaven and earth BLESS THEE OUT OF ZION." — Psalms 134: 2, 3.

"The Lord hath chosen Zion. He hath desired it for His habitation. This is my rest forever. Here will I dwell, for I have desired it." — Psalms 131: 13, 14.

CEASE-FIRE IS "RESULT OF ISRAEL MILITARY GAINS"

PARIS. — The newspaper "Le Figaro" said that the Middle East cease-fire was the immediate and direct consequence of the military gains of the Israelis.

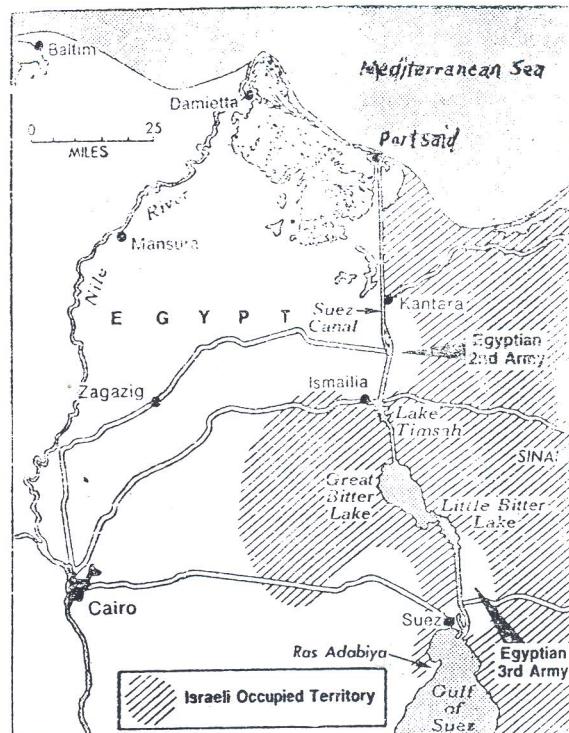

"The Israeli successes were so considerable that a military catastrophe was being anticipated for the Arabs. A cease-fire was necessary to save Egypt from disaster. Mr. Kissinger's trip to Moscow was therefore made in response to an anxious call from the Kremlin", "Le Figaro"

Syria, Iraq and Egypt had 5,000 tanks lined up against Israel on the battle front. There were as many tanks and armoured vehicles as Germany had lined up against Russia in 1942. Paris paper declared it was a miracle they did not reach Tel Aviv in 24 hours. See news item about this miracle on page 17. page 17 left below

The Arabs and Egyptians were so sure they were going to sweep over Israel and capture Tel Aviv, they put, what they thought would be news in advance, that Haifa was burning and their armies were in Tel Aviv.

A gunner on an Israel tank destroyed 60 Syrian tanks himself. Located in the valley he picked them off as they came over a hill approaching him.

Israel soldiers were given help from Heaven, in their manœuvring and shooting. — Editor.

MIDEAST WAR — The Egyptian 3rd Army is surrounded by Israelis, who also have cut remains in position on both sides of the canal roads from the Suez to Cairo. Egypt's 2nd Army in the north.

"SADAT SECRETLY VISITED MOSCOW, BELGRADE, ADEN"

BEIRUT (UPI). — Egyptian President Anwar Sadat paid secret visits to Moscow, Damascus, Belgrade and Aden last week for talks about latest developments in the Middle East, two Beirut newspapers said yesterday.

The pro-Egyptian "Al Moharrer" said Sadat visited Moscow and Damascus on November 8 and held talks with Soviet and Syrian officials on latest political developments in the light of the Egyptian-Israeli cease-fire agreement.

The newspaper quoted informed sources in Cairo as saying that Sadat also visited Belgrade on November 9 and held "very important" talks with the President Tito before the latter's departure for Moscow.

Remarks. — It seems very much in order now for Sadat fearing another attempt on the destruction of Israel himself would mean disaster for him, is now trying secretly to get Russia and all assembled unto her (Ezekiel 38:7) to do the job for him. Everything is ready now for this world shocking move.

LIFE IN ISRAEL

By EFFIE DUGGER

Shalom!

This is Tuesday November 27th and a lovely sunny day. When we get the news our first desire is to see how Mr. Ben-Gurion is. There is no change for the better yet. Perhaps it is a mercy that he does not have to hear the deliberations for peace which are almost at a standstill.

It is hard for Israel to make any definite decisions until after Election, which comes up in December. The King of Jordan does not wish for the Palestinians to press for Arafat to be sole representative of the Palestine people.

The Algerian President who made a speech at the Arab summit meeting stated that the Arabs should make real preparation for the coming battles, which will have to be decisive. No one seems to expect peace.

This little letter is written from Jerusalem. The word "Jerusalem" means: a "possession of peace". How strange that this city known as the city of peace, has changed hands so many times during the centuries. It has been captured at least 20 times by different armies.. Why does its possession still have to be contested? Why does it still have no lasting peace?

An interesting comment by Premer Golda Meir in today's paper brings up the question also: "Why is there no peace?" She says. "Israel had lulled itself into thinking in recent years that because it saw no point in war that the Arabs did not either".

"We were so absolutely certain that war can solve nothing and that we wanted peace, that we transferred this feeling to a very large extent to our neighbors. The intelligence reports (about war preparation) came in and the best of our people said 'it can't happen'." Mrs. Meir was speaking at a Knesset dinner for leaders of Anglo-Jewry.

"For the first time in any of Israel's wars", Mrs. Meir said, "the feeling existed in the first two days of the October war that Israel may lose. On the outcome of the war", she said, "depended not only the fate of Israel, but the Jewish people. I am convinced as I never was before that the continuity of the Jewish people depends on us."

"The lesson we have to learn, and teach our children and grand children —and it is a bitter lesson — is that we just cannot live like all other people in the world. If we turn away for a moment because it is too dark to face the truth, then we are lost. We have to learn how not to give up one iota of our desire for peace and never again to believe that because we want it they will give it to us."

"There is no Jew in Israel who can say he is the same today as he was on Yom Kippur Eve. I don't believe I will ever be the same."

The Premier said she was not a pessimist and believed that Israel would one day live with its neighbours as do other countries.

I am glad to quote from her momentous decision so that others can believe as we do that the people who possess the city today truly have a desire that it may be a "possession of peace". God will hear and answer prayer. It is a very hopeful sign.

When Messiah was here he wept over the city. See Luke 13: 34, 35.

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the Prophets and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together as a hen doth her brood under her wings, and ye would not. Behold your house is left unto you desolate and verily I say unto you. Ye shall not see Me, until the time come when ye shall say: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord".

Israel is passing through a testing time now, but the promises for the future are all very comforting. Read the whole of Joel second chapter. "Blow the Trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call of solemn assembly. Fear not, O land be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things".

Speaking to the people he says: "Therefore turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning".

"The day of the Lord is nigh at hand." Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem, they shall prosper that love thee. — Shalom.

GOOD HEALTH

It follows very definitely, therefore that we should use a variety of natural plant food, to assure us the proper feeding of every organ. Hence good sound health. All food comes from the earth. "Dust we are and to dust shall we return is the decree. It is exercise that destroys the old cells of our body, and the more exercise the more of them are torn down, giving proper place to build new ones, and thus our bodies are made new with new cells. Without exercise the cells become old, and we might say rotten, forming suitable soil for cancer etc. Walking is the best exercise, and we should walk at least an hour a day.

How To Calculate Pentecost, Did Pentecost Fall On Sunday

~~CONTROVERSY BETWEEN PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES.~~ Leviticus 23: 15, 16

"These are the feasts of the Lord, even holy convocations which ye shall proclaim in their seasons." In the 14th day of this month is the feast of unleaven bread unto the Lord, seven days ye must eat unleavened bread. In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation, ye shall do no servile work therein. — Leviticus 23: 4 to 7.

"And ye shall wave the sheaf offering before the Lord verse 11, and ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the Sabbath from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the waive offering, seven Sabbaths shall be complete. Even unto the morrow after the seventh Sabbath shall ye number fifty days" verses 15, 16.

"And ye shall proclaim on the self same day that it may be an (holy) convocation unto you. You shall do no servile work therein. It shall be a statute forever in all of your dwellings throughout your generations". — Verse 21.

One of the strong and frequently used arguments of those who substitute Sunday for the true Sabbath of the Bible is that the great Pentecost meeting recorded in the 2nd chapter of Acts fell on the first day of the week. They make this calculation by beginning the count of the fifty days from the morrow after the weekly 7th day Sabbath.

Notice in the above scripture it says to begin your count from the morrow after the Sabbath, but this refers to the Passover Sabbath and not to the weekly Sabbath.

Pentecost is from the Greek word "hemera" meaning fifty. The sadducees made the calculation for Pentecost counting from the day after the weekly Sabbath, while the Pharisees began the count after the Passover Sabbath, and therefore the day of Pentecost comes on a different day of the week each year, the same as the Passover, for they begin the count from the 15 of Abib, the day after the Passover. This was an outstanding controversial point between the Sadducees and the Pharisees during the days of Christ's ministry here and also that of the apostles.

Also the Sadducees did not believe in angels, or Spirit nor in any divine power from heaven to direct the lives of men.

We read in Acts 23rd chapter verses 1 to 9, how Paul knowing the controversy between the Sadducees and Pharisees over these doctrines, took advantage of it when being set before the chief priests and their council.

Notice also the last portion of chapter 22 how Paul was bound and threatened death when the Jews rent their clothes and threw dust in the air saying: "Away with such a fellow." Acts 22: 22, 23.

Then note in the following chapter verse 6. It reads: "But when Paul perceived that the one part was Sadducees and the other Pharisees,

~~HR-14TH ABIB. LORD SUPPER.~~
~~15TH ABIB - FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD~~
LEX. 23:4-7

he cried out in the council: Men and brethren I am a Pharisee, the son of a pharisee of the hope of the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question".

"And when he had so said there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided for the Sadducees say there is no resurrection neither angel nor Spirit, but the Pharisees confess both." Verses 6, 7, 8.

Paul also said concerning the Pharisees, that they sat in Moses' seat. That is they were the sect that followed the teaching of Moses concerning these controverted doctrines. It was the Sadducees mostly that persecuted the apostles, for they disagreed with their teaching.

Those who observe Sunday for the Sabbath follow the Sadducees, to make Pentecost fall always on Sunday, in their teaching that the Creator thus chose and used the day in performing the mighty work of sending His Holy Spirit upon the apostles, and baptising three thousand souls. The beginning of the counting of fifty days, however, starts after the Passover Sabbath and not the weekly Sabbath. L L

Our beloved Messiah Yahshua (Jesus), commanded us to follow the teaching of the Pharisees. "Then spake Jesus to the multitude and to His disciples saying: 'The scribes and Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, THAT OBSERVE AND DO, but do not after their works for they say and do not'." — Matt. 23: 1 to 3.

The nation Israel is following the Pharisees and not the Sadducees in their calculation of Pentecost, and other holidays set forth in the scriptures, and are therefore also following the command of Christ. These facts absolutely do away with the false teaching that Pentecost fell on Sunday. In-as-much as the 14th of Abib fell on Wednesday the year of the crucifixion, Thursday was the Passover Sabbath, Pentecost fell on Friday the day of preparation. It surely was a preparation day, and a preparation work that took place on that day. — Editor.

DANIEL AND REVELATION

Now we have printed another twelve thousand of the book of Daniel together with the book of Revelation, in the Hebrew and twelve thousand in the English. We are sure that Gabriel and Michael through whom these great prophecies were given will be pleased for us, unitedly to give them to the "Chosen People" from whom they have been withheld all of these years.

IS IT TRUE OR FALSE THAT BABYLON HAS BEEN REBUILT

Thus annulling the testimony of ancient Prophets, and making void the Word of God.

The Editor is receiving letters from different ones in which they report that the ancient city of Babylon has been rebuilt, according to some religious publications. In order to set people straight on this important question, the following will give them light and understanding. The words of the ancient prophets will stand and not fall!

The prophet Jeremiah speaks thus regarding the city of Babylon saying "Thou shalt say, thus shall Babylon sink and shall not rise, from the evil that will bring upon her, and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah". — Jeremiah 51:64.

The prophet Isaiah says: "Babylon the glory of Kingdoms... shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah... It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in... neither shall the Arab pitch his tents there. Neither shall the shepherds make their folds there". — Isaiah 13:9-22.

If Babylon has been rebuilt and a beautiful modern city stands there as infidels and Communists, as well as their modernist friends tell us, and even publish to the world, then both of these ancient prophets are false, and the soundness of the Bible is corrupted and debased.

Some over forty years ago, when living here at Jerusalem with my family, I made a trip over to Babylon, to see for myself the remains of the city, and also to answer the same satanic reports that were then, and are now, being circulated to discredit the integrity and inspiration of the Scriptures. There were two cars of us traveling all day from Damascus across the Arabian desert, without any road, like ships on the sea, using a compass for directions. Night came and we still continued on through the night, until around nine the next day we arrived in Baghdad.

It was during the summer of 1932, and very hot, the temperature rising during the day to 110. degrees. I hired an Arab with his car to take me to Babylon, 25 miles south of Baghdad. Along side the road, just before we crossed the rail-road track going South to the sea, there was a big post standing with a large arrow pointing to the West. On this sign was written in large English, as well as Arabic letters the word: BABYLON.

I looked and saw only a great wall of sand, sixty or seventy feet high, resembling a great snow-drift, as the sand, like the snow had blown from the north-west, covering the ancient city completely. This great drift of sand extended south-west, to the north-east of my position as far as the eye could see. Climbing on top of this once great city, and walking over it on the sand, we came to a site which had been partly excavated.

The excavation had uncovered a very large statue of a lion, which in the Bible is a symbol of Babylon. — Daniel 7:4.

The whole of the ancient city was a wilderness of shifting desert sand, and the Arabs said they never drove their sheep and goats through the place for fear of them being bitten by scorpions and other poisonous reptiles. I was very deeply impressed by the words of the prophet Isaiah as given above regarding the shepherds. There was no city, not even a building to be seen.

Late Evidence

About eight years ago, Pauline and George Thagard, of California, visited Israel on their trip around the world, and as they planned a stop-off at Baghdad I suggested that they also make a trip south to the site of the old tower of Babel (Gen. 11:1-9), and the desolation of the ancient metropolis of the world at the time of Nebuchadnezzar. We also mentioned to them how modern Bible critics were making the claim that Babylon had been rebuilt into a modern city. I requested also that they write me their findings.

Here is a portion of their letter. It reads as follows:

7845 East 5th St. Downing California,
U.S.A. 90241, April 19, 1966.

"You asked about the rebuilding of Babylon. There is a small museum with artifacts found in the ruins, really very few. There are also plants showing how Nebuchadnezzar's palace is thought to have been built. There is also a wall with figures of a horse with cows hoofs, tail etc., cows with horse's hoofs, etc. I believe that each four of such animal groups told a story. There was a very nice restaurant and place to rest. That is all.

The ruins of the tower of Babel are just a huge mound of sand now being sifted for relics. There were several deep holes for the purpose of such excavations. There is a sign showing where the hanging gardens of the king were supposedly located, also his palace, etc.

As we walked around we saw a few children. They did not want their pictures taken, and would run if the camera was exposed.

We found the country very interesting and the people were very nice to us. It is amazing to find a country so rich, the cradle of civilization, and its people (the masses), so poor.

We wish you and yours good tidings in all you do. May your work be blessed a thousand fold.

Sincerely yours,

Pauline and George Thagard

The foregoing is certainly sufficient proof that all reports concerning the rebuilding of ancient Babylon are without foundation and false. Babylon is today exactly as these ancient prophets

GOOD HEALTH DEPARTMENT

"FOR WHY WILL YE DIE?"

'We squander Health
In search of Wealth,
We scheme and toil and save;
Then squander Wealth,
In search of Health,
And all we get's a grave.
We live and boast of what we own —
We die and only get a stone."

How true that is of most people! They neglect the care of the body in the acquisition of wealth, and when they do acquire the pot of gold they find their bodies are too wrecked with disease to enjoy the glitter of the rainbow. They find that all the money in the world will not buy the joy of a healthy body.

And what is even more tragic, many people spend their entire life searching for the rainbow's end, and then never find the pot of gold at all!

Without health there is no enjoyment of life, with or without wealth. Any time or money spent on the improvement of the health of the body is time and money well spent, and repays the splendor a thousandfold.

And health lies in following Nature's law in regard to simple, natural foods, proper rest, sunshine and fresh air — the things which are the least expensive in life, and which are the heritage of all.

There is no royal way to radiant health. It cannot be obtained by pushing a button or by turning a switch. Nature is no respecter of wealth, and rich and poor alike are punished for disobedience.

OUR BODIES

Few people realize how completely they are made of the food they consume and that sickness and disease are the result of improper diet. Within the last few years, however, this fact has been more generally accepted everywhere and is causing a veritable revolution in the treatment of disease.

Dr. Alexis Carrel, of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, stated: "If the doctor of today does not become the dietitian of tomorrow, the dietitian of today will become the doctor of tomorrow". And this was not just a voice crying in the wilderness. A host of modern doctors and scientists now recognize how vitally important is the food we eat.

Man is what he eats, and only through proper diet can he maintain health, vigor and immunity to disease.

To understand this better, let us examine the human body. We find it is composed of billions of tiny cells. Then, when we analyze each cell, we find it is composed of some sixteen basic chemical elements.

The little cells of our bodies do not live forever they wear out just like the parts of any it is discarded from the body and Nature must have more material to build new cells to take the place of the old.

We can see the new cells of the fingernails pushing the old cells out of the body. We can also see the new cells of the hair pushing out the place of the old.

But the inner cells of the body, are being replaced, too. The old cells are eliminated through the four organs of elimination (lungs, skin, kidneys and bowels) and new cells are constantly replacing the old cells. And how strong this new body structure is depends upon the materials with which Nature has to build.

Each little cell is composed of some sixteen different minerals, so it can be readily seen, that the most important point in the process of building a strong, healthy body is to take into the system those different elements which Nature needs to build strong, healthy cells.

"Where shall we find these minerals?"

In the first place, we find them all in the earth, but they are in the form of inorganic minerals — form which our bodies cannot assimilate. No one would think of picking up a bar of iron and trying to eat it, no matter how anemic he is, for he knows he cannot use that kind of iron. It is in the inorganic form and the body cannot digest it. How then, is man to get these minerals?

Nature has solved this problem and has given to the plants the power to take the inorganic minerals out of the soil and through the action of sunlight, to change them into organic, or living form, so animals (including man) can use them.

Certain organs of our bodies require more of a certain mineral than others; the teeth and bones need more calcium, the blood corpuscles more iron, and so on. Scientists have proved that if there is a lack of a certain mineral in the diet, there will be a corresponding weakness in a certain part of the body — the organ affected will not function properly and we have what is called "disease".

The name of the disease will depend upon the organ or organs affected, then more of those minerals which have been lacking should be taken into the system to build up the organs affected. And we find certain plants are higher in some minerals than others, so it is those plants which should form a permanent place in the diet.

All items from "The Jerusalem Post"

"HOW ARE THE HEROES FALLEN..."

"... faithful and loving in life, in death not parted... Swifter than the eagle, and more resolute than the lion..."

Thus David mourned the death of Saul and Jonathan in battle against the Philistines; thus praying Jews to this day mourn our martyrs of all the generations; thus we in Israel today mourn the 1,854 dead of the Yom Kippur War — even as we pray for the welfare of the 450 men believed to be in Egyptian and Syrian captivity and of the 1,800 still being treated in our hospitals; and express thanks and another prayer for the 3,000 wounded who have recovered and returned to their units. To say nothing of a heartfelt prayer of all the men at their posts.

Not only we in Israel — all Jews everywhere mourn and pray for those who, they know, are the frontline soldiers not only of the inhabitants of a clearly delineated place on the map called Israel but of the entire Jewish people. In essence, the Yom Kippur attempt on our life was no different from all the previous attempts in the 4,000-year history of the Jewish people. The difference is that today we are able to defend ourselves, even if it is with heavy sacrifices.

Thus Jews everywhere recognize that if Israel beleaguered is a beleaguered of them, too, and that our soldiers are their soldiers, too, is attested by their rallying to give whatever material and political aid their conditions allow, and by their coming here — suspending their private lives — to perform vital civilian tasks, any of them had not realized but now know that the alarm that tolled for us on Yom Kippur afternoon tolled for them, too; many of us in Israel did not or would not acknowledge but now know that an alarm sounded here is heard by brother Jews everywhere. Many learned this in 1967, and also learned that the assault on us then was not a product of the new "Zionist sin", but of the encouragement given the Arab States, and not by the east bloc alone, to assume that the establishment of Israel had been a temporary fact that could be eliminated by opposition.

We grieve — all of us; we are bereaved — all of us, and soon, when it is possible to publish the names of the fallen, many of us will grieve again. Some of us, in our bereavement, turn on ourselves as though we — or one of us — had personally committed some sin which brought about the bereavement.

Some of us, in our bereavement, transport ourselves back to Massada and translate ourselves into the bodies of the last-stand defenders of Massada, as though there were no sons left or live after the losses of the past week. This is an understandable but artificial and dangerous attempt to invest our own, immediate loss with a glory of desperation that is of another time and place.

If glory we need, if glory we must lift from elsewhere to give meaning to our grief and bereavement, then let us look not to Massada but of Modi'in and the Maccabees of 2,137 years ago — the Maccabees who fought to keep alive the light of Jewish living, whose motto was "I shall not die but live".

ISRAELI AID TOPS $150 MILLION; AMERICAN VOLUNTEERS ARE READY

American Jews have donated an estimated $150 million for Israel since the Mideast war broke out, fund raisers said yesterday. The American Zionist Youth Foundation said 10,000 persons have volunteered to go to Israel to help out on the home front.

ARAB PAPERS URGE SOVIETS TO HALT JEWISH EMIGRATION

CAIRO (UPI). — Egyptian newspapers over the weekend urged the Soviet Union to halt Jewish emigration to Israel, and suggested a massive Arab campaign to convince the Soviets to do so.

Mohammed Hassanein Heykal, editor of "Al Abram", urged Arab countries on Friday to raise the question of Jewish emigration from the Soviet Union in a "clear and serious way".

The newspaper said there was collusion between the two superpowers "to put a check to the decisions of the U.N. recommending the return of Palestinians to their land which cannot take place as long as Jewish emigrants continue to flow from the Soviet Union and the Eastern Bloc countries".

SYRIA ASKS U.N. TO EXPEL ISRAEL

UNITED NATIONS (UPI). — Syrian Foreign Minister Abdul Halim Khaddam urged the General Assembly on Friday to approve a resolution expelling Israel, ordering a boycott of the Jewish State and demanding its immediate and unconditional withdrawal from all Arab territory occupied in the 1967 Six Day War.

Khaddam said Israel and "American imperialism" had become isolated in the present-day world.

U.N. legal experts pointed out that Khaddam's expulsion proposal could not be carried out by the Assembly, which he suggested should act because of the likelihood of a U.S. veto blocking anti-Israel action in the Security Council.

The U.N. charter provides that a member may be expelled by a vote of the General Assembly but only upon recommendation of such action by the Security Council.

RABBINATE WANTS SABBATH AS DAY OF REST FOR CARS

The Chief Rabbinate Council in Jerusalem yesterday demanded that the Transport Minister and other authorities fix the Sabbath as the compulsory day of rest for vehicles when the new one-day-a-week restrictions come into effect to save petrol.

Vehicles should be off the roads from Friday dusk to Saturday dusk, the Rabbinate said. The Dutch Government did not allow every citizen to pick his own day, to lay his car up: it fixed Sunday, the national day of rest, the Rabbinate said. The holy Sabbath must not be inferior to the Gentile day of rest, the statement added.

By keeping the Sabbath holy, Israel can hope for Heavenly grace in these difficult times, the Rabbinate said.

JUST BEFORE THE WAR

An estimated 10,500 passengers passed through Lod Airport yesterday, a record for this season, officials said. Traffic slowed smoothly in the entrance halls, but towards afternoon long queues had formed at the passport control and security checkpoint in the outgoing passengers hall.

ARAB AIM IS ISRAEL'S ANNIHILATION

Sir, — From the beginning, the Arabs have had only one aim, to annihilate Israel, and this is still their aim.

The Egyptians and Syrians claim today that, since Israel occupied some of their territories, they have a moral right to try to recover them by force if Israel does not evacuate them voluntarily, from all occupied territories to exactly the frontiers which existed before the Sinai War — and which are the same frontiers the Arabs want Israel to retreat to now — and offered peace to the Arabs. However, Israel's peace offers were answered with preparations for war.

It is a fact that, if the Arabs had not wanted to destroy Israel, the frontiers would still be those of June 4. The Six Day War was caused by Egypt closing the Eilat straits for the purpose of annihilating Israel. They could not claim that they acted in order to regain occupied territory.

Moreover, if Russia had not supplied massive aggressive armaments to the Arabs before 1967, the occupied territories would still be in their hands, because the Six Day War would not have taken place. The Russian arms supplied since 1967 have produced the present war, and it is quite possible that, in the not too distant future, the supporters of the Arab state at the U.N. may table a resolution ordering Israel back to the lines held on October 5, 1973, although they started the war.

DURING THE WAR 13,000 VOLUNTEERS REGISTER TO WORK

Some 13,000 volunteers, 7,000 of whom have already been placed, have registered with the Employment Service. These include new immigrants from absorption centres, men who have not been called up for reserve duty, women, youth, tourists and elderly persons.

Demand has been mostly in the metals and food industries, and for drivers. Pickers and packers will soon be required for the forthcoming citrus season.

SOVIETS, ETHIOPIA CALL FOR M.E. RIGHTS

MOSCOW (UPI). — The Soviet Union and Ethiopia called yesterday for the withdrawal of Israel troops from all "occupied Arab lands". A communique issued after the visit here on Monday and Tuesday by Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie also said an indispensable condition for a political settlement in the Middle East is the assurance of the "rights and interests of all states and peoples of the area".

Note. — Joel 3rd chapter says: "All nations" will be against Israel. They are now gathering together to fulfill this wonderful chapter 3. — Editor "Reporter".

NIGERIA WARNING ON ISRAEL TIES

NEW YORK (UPI). — President Yakubu Gowon of Nigeria on Friday said there was no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with Israel if it does not withdraw from occupied territories.

CITRUS EXPORTS UP

LONDON (INA). — Despite the war, Jaffa grapefruit supplies for the British market have increased over last year's shipments, and have already exceeded the target, according to Amichai Zur, head of the London office of the Citrus Marketing Board of Israel.

The shipments expected here on November 5 will bring the total to 345,000 cases, as against 322,000 at this time last year.

RECORD ELECTRONICS EXPORTS BY TAIWAN

TAIPEI. — Nationalist China has exported over $393 m. worth of electronic products during the first eight months of 1973, it was reported here. This represents an increase of 62 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

Parts and sub-assemblies accounted for 52.3 per cent of these exports.

The Industrial Development Bureau said the increased exports indicates that Taiwan's electronics industry has come of age.

$1,000 M. MORE IN ISRAEL BONDS TO BE ISSUED

The Cabinet yesterday approved the issue of a new series of Israel Bonds to total $1,000 m. The legislation required will be tabled in the Knesset by Finance Minister Pinhas Sapir.

Mr. Sapir will also push through legislation confirming his recent increase in purchase tax and import levies.

The new bonds issue had originally been set at 750 m. but within the last fortnight Bonds sales in the U.S. have been good enough to warrant raising the value of the issue, it was learned.

CHRISTIAN GROUPS RESUME PILGRIMAGES

Two groups of tourists arrived yesterday, by sea and by air. Three-hundred and 50 American Christian pilgrims — Shriners — disembarked at Haifa from the cruise ship Jupiter — the second such vessel to dock since the war. At Lod Airport, a KLM flight landed 45 Christian pilgrims and both Jewish and non-Jewish tourists.

BUILDING PRIORITY FOR NEWLYWEDS, IMMIGRANTS

The transport and labour-short building industry will give top priority to completing flats for young couples and immigrants, the Finance Ministry has announced. The decision was reached on Friday at a meeting of Finance Minister Pinhas Sapir, Housing Minister Zeev Sharef, and heads of contractors' organization and building unions.

It was decided to ask the Army to release vehicles and key building men from service in order to ease the current situation.

The Housing Ministry Director General said in an Army Radio interview broadcast Friday that the Ministry would give first call to repairs on war-damaged houses.

Speaking on the same programme, Avraham Ofer, head of the Histadrut's Shikun Ovdim building firm, said that only 20,000 of Israel's pre-war building force of 60,000 were now working and they were handicapped by the severe shortage of transport.

Mr. Ofer said a quarter of the 90,000 flats under construction could be ready in another three to four months — a delay of a month or two. Another 20,000-25,000 were half finished and would require nine months' more work, providing the industry revives within a month.

The big problem would be the flats scheduled for completion in 1975, he said.

FEISAL TO SEND ENVOYS TO POPE ON JERUSALEM

BEIRUT (AP). — King Feisal of Saudi Arabia plans to send a high level delegation to the Vatican soon for talks on the future of the Arab sector of Jerusalem, the Beirut newspaper "An Nahar" reported.

It quoted diplomatic sources as saying the Arabian monarch believes an agreement can be worked out with the Vatican to set up joint administration of Christian-Islamic sites in Jerusalem.

Feisal reportedly insisted during his talks last week with U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger that the city's Arab sector should be returned to the Arabs as a precondition for lifting Saudi Arabia's oil embargo against the U.S.

MIRACLE THAT ARABS DIDN'T REACH TEL AVIV IN 24 HOURS

PARIS (Reuter). — Nato defense ministers will discuss the lessons of the tank warfare in the Israel-Arab conflict when they meet in Brussels next month, Nato Secretary-General Joseph Luns said here on Monday.

"The Arab armies lined up as many tanks and armoured vehicles as did the Nazi armies when they attacked Russia in June 1941", he said in an address to France's Academy of Political Sciences. He added it was a miracle that the Arab troops had not reached Tel Aviv in 24 hours.

Egypt, Syria and Iraq had deployed 5,000 tanks and 900 missile batteries, and the Nato defence ministers would discuss these staggering figures at their December meeting.

Syria launched its attack against the Golan Heights with 1,200 tanks. It was a real miracle that these armoured forces failed to reach Tel Aviv only 165 kilometres away in 24 hours."

(The closest the Syrians actually came to Tel Aviv was 130 kms. as the crow flies but they were 65 kms. from Haifa. — Editor J.P.)

The Secretary-General urged Western Europe to maintain solid links with the U.S. and shoulder a greater share of the defence burden. Western Europe remained the stake in East-West rivalry and there was no alternative to the U.S. presence in Europe, he said.

LIBYAN THIEF IS SENTENCED TO HAVE HAND CHOPPED OFF

BEIRUT (UPI). — A Libyan court has ordered a Libyan citizen convicted of stealing to have his right hand chopped off, the Tripoli newspaper "Al Balagh" said yesterday.

The newspaper said the verdict meant that Libyan courts have started implementing Colonel Mu'ammar Gaddafi's instructions for a return to Islamic law.

The scrapping of existing laws and a return to Islamic law formed part of the "cultural revolution" Gaddafi launched in April.

ADVICE FOR THE TIMES

HAIFA. — A novel car sticker has made its appearance here. The sticker reads: "Israel, Trust in the Lord", a verse from the Psalms.

This reporter spotted the sticker on a Volkswagen yesterday morning, and its driver was bareheaded, indicating that he was not particularly orthodox. A similar sticker was seen on a car last Sabbath, so that its driver, too, could not have been orthodox.

PRAYER CHANGES THINGS

Please pray with us that all of these faithful labourers will be much in prayer, trusting fully, and at all times, in that intervening and protecting hand from above to lead and direct them in this great work, of turning people to righteousness, in these closing days, of Gentile times. The heavenly Father has given every one a work to do, some with more talents than others, and He is VERY SOON going to send His Son, our beloved Messiah, to reckon with every servant.

"After a long time the Lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them." — Matthew 25: 19.

THE SPECTACULAR NEW FOUND COMET APPROACHES

Readers Digests of November says “there is nothing on record like this spectacular new found comet”. Astronomers say it is 10,000 miles across the head and its tail will spread for millions of miles across the wintry sky. It may be seen the first part of December dimly in the south western sky soon after dark, but by December 28th it is supposed to be seen nightly growing brighter with its best January 10th for about five days.

Comets appearances anciently often caused wide spread panic. A calamity or two, anciently was always associated with their appearance. The Jewish Chronicles tell of a great flaming sword that appeared over Jerusalem in the year 769 just before the city fell to the Romans in 770 A.D. Comets are said to have heralded the defeat of England at the time of William the Conqueror, and also earthquakes at different times, the black death plague of 1456, etc.

Pope Calixtus, it is reported, added this to his prayers: “Lord save us from the devil, the Turk and the comet”. We well remember the appearance of the famous Halley’s Comet going over in 1910, which proceeded the first world war of 1912, spreading to the World War of 1914. We know according to Bible prophecy that a world wide calamity is near, and the third and last world war is due now for which the world in general is preparing.

Let every reader pray much daily to be accounted worthy of deliverance. — Luke 21: 36. — Editor

A CLOUD BY DAY AND A FIRE BY NIGHT

There is to be created upon every dwelling place here on Mount Zion, the cloud by day and pillar of fire by night, as it was in the wilderness. Exodus 13:21-22; Numbers 11:25-29; 14:14; 20:12; Deuteronomy 33:15; 34:5; 1 Kings 8:2; 2 Kings 18:32; 2 Chronicles 32:22; 36:22; Nehemiah 10:33; Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27; Mark 13:27; Luke 21:27; John 14:2; Revelation 15:8

NOT ONLY HERE, but also on all HER ASSEMBLES IN every part of the earth. This work is in process of preparation now. He shall “create upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and upon HER ASSEMBLIES, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for all the glory shall be a defence”. — Isaiah 4:5; Revelation 15:8

Not only are the hearts of the Jews being turned toward Jerusalem and Zion, but the hearts of many Gentiles throughout the world are also.

HOW GENTILES GET IN

Showing that they are to be adopted into the family of Abraham and become Israel (Gal. 3: 28 to 29). Also Jews inwardly (Rom. 2:25, 29).

"If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.
If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, if I prefer not JERUSALEM above my chief joy." —
Psalms 137: 5-6.

WHERE IS THE TRUE RELIGION?

The Jewish religion is the only true religion, and the mother religion of departed Christianity. The New Bible as some call the New Testament, is also Jewish. Every writer was a Jew, like us, who had simply learned the truth from Moses, Isaiah, and the other prophets that the Messiah was to come as a child, and grow up, and reign as King of kings on the throne of David. — Isaiah 2: 6, 7.

He was to be born from a young women (Alma) (Isaiah 7: 14). This was no more a miracle for a virgin to bring forth a child without knowing a man, than for Isaac to be born from Sarah when she was 90 years old. They were both miracle sons.

Just to discover this great truth that Moses and the other prophets have given over fifty prophecies concerning the Messiah going to come as a child, and give His soul as an offering for the sins of His people, before He was exalted and taken to Heaven, and now very soon to return as King of kings, does not make anyone a Christian. God forbid, it is far from that. This only adds one point to their faith, as many are learning, and makes them better Jews.

Dr. Wiseman, our first President, advised the Jews to read the New Testament, that it would make them better Jews. His advise has been followed, and it has made many thousand Jews in Israel over the world, better Jews. Read Mica 5: 2; Isaiah 53rd chapter, and many more I can give you if you want them.

This beloved Messiah is now very soon coming down from heaven in great splendor, power and glory, surrounded by all the Holy angels, to deliver Israel from her enemies, and reign as King of the world, right here at Jerusalem.

THE NEW SELF FEEDING FOLDER AND SELF FEEDING ADDRESSER

A notice was given to our readers a short time ago about our urgent need of these two machines. What we have are too slow when fed by hand and also cause considerable waste in not being accurate. We have ordered these machines shipped from Germany. This affords an excellent opening to those who want to, and can, make an investment in something that will be swiftly working for them until the end which is very near. These machines will be preparing literature warning people and turning them to righteousness during these ending days of Gentile times. Read Ezekiel 33:6, as this applies to every one of the Father's children.

TO JERUSALEM FOR PENTECOST

The general meeting called for Jerusalem at "the Feast of Tabernacles" was disrupted by the sudden Israel war. Therefore it has been decided to announce a general gathering of the ministers of the World who love the Heavenly Father and His Son, and therefore also love Jerusalem, to meet together here for this coming Pentecost, the last part of May 1974.

Churches who wish to send their minister, or a representative can begin now to save some funds to pay his way here and return. The church here will provide free lodging quarters. We desire, however, that all who plan to come for this meeting send us a notice ahead of time, so sufficient rooms will be made available.

"Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my Holy Mountain. Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the Lord cometh. It is nigh at hand". — Joel 2: 1.

"Sanctify ye a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Gather the Elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the Lord your God, and cry unto the Lord. Alas for the day, for the day of the Lord is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come". — Joel 1: 14, 15.

Gather the people. Sanctify the congregation, assemble the Elders... let the ministers of the Lord weep between the porch and the altar. Let them say: "Save thy people, Oh Lord". — Joel 2: 16, 17.

This meeting has been arranged to continue for one week, beginning on the day of Pentecost. — Editor.
