DISCOVERY OF NOAH'S ARK

INTERVIEW WITH JAMES M. LEE, SECRETARY OF THE SEARCH FOUNDATION FOR NOAH'S ARK, INC., WASHINGTON, D.C. 20012

J.M. Lee, Ph.D.

Lee. — Doctor Liedmann, we first met at the Hilton Hotel in Chicago at the International Convention of the FGBMFI. Demos Sharian, the International President, had asked me to attend the convention and show the pieces of wood found on Mount Ararat in 1969, the SEARCH Foundation Team, and the movie film of the expedition. You will recall that I was standing at a table showing interested persons the print of an original painting the mountain, when you walked up to the table, pointed to the picture and said. "The Ark is there!" You seemed to be so positive in your remark that we entered into a discussion on the subject and then learned that you had a very remarkable experience which you partially revealed to those standing there. Doctor Liedmann, will you please tell us about some of the background of your family, your experiences in Sweden, and how it is that you are so confident in your own mind that Noah's Ark still remains high up on the upper slopes of Mount Ararat?

Liedmann. — Yes, I will be happy to do so,

Mr. Lee. I was born in Sweden of Orthodox Jewish parents who had migrated from the Russian Ukraine. From them I learned the Russian language. As a Jew I also learned the Hebrew and Aramaic languages. I have been interested in many different archeological discoveries around the world — especially those connected with Old Testament history. My experience concerning Mount Ararat was a remarkable experience in itself, as you will see, and I still marvel at it myself. I have never related this story of my experience to anyone since it happened in 1947 and 1948.

I received my medical degree in Upsala, Sweden, where I also studied and received my specialty in neurosurgery. I should mention here that I had been studying medicine for approximately five years when I quit my studies and volunteered for the R.A.F. for a six-month tour of active duty. I fought against the Germans, and was shot down twice by them and was injured in my back.

After my recovery I went back to medical school again and began studying hematology down in Heidelberg. It was on one of my trips down there that I became acquainted with a Russian Air Force major. This was in Ham-

Stephens, Judah

Note. — Noah's Ark as I saw it June 1947 on a picture taken in 1938, shown to me by a Russian Major in the Russian Air Force, approx. 14,000 feet. Sketch from my mind.

Donald N. Liedmann, M.D., Ph.D.

burg. As everyone knows, the Russians, the English and the Americans were all fighting together as the common enemies of Germany. This Air Force major and I found that we had many things common: we were both squadron leaders during the last portion of World War II; we had both been flying since early manhood; we both spoke the same Russian dialect; and he was born in Ukraine and my ancestors came from there.

Thus we had many common interests to discuss socially. On several occasions when we met by appointment I would invite him for dinners and social entertainments. It was on these occasions that he described to me different happenings, which, naturally, no one in his position should have mentioned to anyone in the Western world.

Lee. — What was the nature of the happenings which he revealed to you?

Liedmann. — This Air Force major had been a squadron leader in the Russian Air Force and was in command of a group of three planes which had taken part in a number of special missions over Mount Ararat. To my understanding, they were going there at very specific times each year, because, as this major explained to me, there are only 30 to 38 days during the year that the glaciers in that area are melted enough to make it favourable for taking pictures. Which day of the month it was I cannot recall, but nevertheless, the first time I met him in 1947 he showed me at that time three distinct pictures taken on Mount Ararat. They are marked at the 13-14,000 foot elevation, or 4,500 meters approximately.

These pictures also showed a Russian aircraft with their insignia on the wings. Each of these pictures showed a boat-like structure which he pointed out to me to be what is mentioned in the Bible as Noah's Ark. I asked him a number of times why they were so interested in taking those pictures. He just laughed a little and did not answer my question.

One of those pictures showed the ship protruding out of the ice approximately 80 or 90 feet and it was tilted slightly downwards. In the bottom of that area was a little melted pond or lake. The glacier was shown with the mountain summit in the upper right of that picture and the other pictures were taken at a similar angle. To me it appeared that they were taken on the north side. He would not give too many of his own explanations of this, because, as he pointed out time and again, those photographs were the property of the U.S.S.R.

Lee. — Were any photographs taken other than in 1938?

Liedmann. — Yes. I met the same man a year later, in 1948, also in Hamburg, Germany. At that time he showed me another set of pictures. Let me mention this. Those first pictures which I mentioned before were taken in 1938 at approximately the 14,000-foot elevation. Those other pictures which were shown me in 1948 were taken more recently. Just how recently I don't know. He only mentioned that "these have been taken since I saw you."

How this happened I can't explain. To me it had no significance at the time for the simple reason that I was not a Christian, but a Jew. I did not pay too much attention, other than that I believed absolutely that Noah's Ark was there. I know the Old Testament very well, and so knew the Ark must still be there."

Lee. — How much of the Ark was exposed to view?

Liedmann. — This is what can be explained about those pictures that were taken the last time. On this occasion he showed me almost a dozen pictures. The Ark was covered up much more than the first time with maybe only 12 or 15 feet of the vessel showing. Only a tip of it was showing. Some sections could be seen through the glassy clear ice. These were the pictures that were shown me on those two different occasions.

The first one was shown to me in 1947, and the second one in 1948. All of these photographs were concerning Noah's Ark on Mt. Ararat, and there always appeared a Russian aircraft in the picture. I asked him for a copy of these pictures, and he said: "These are the property of the Russian government and I cannot give them out, nor give any more information regarding these pictures."

Regarding the mountain — he described it as a high, rocky, volcanic mountain and that since it belonged to Turkey they could not do any research on it. This I could understand.

Lee. — Did you met this Air Force major other than on these two occasions?

Liedmann. — The third time I met that same major he was with a number of his companions and when I asked him about his expedition he would not talk or mention anything about them. He completely ignored the subject. In fact, he told me, "I don't know what you are talking about." That was on the third occasion that I met this same Russian Air Force major.

Lee. — How did you happen to met him in Hamburg?

Liedmann. — Why did we meet in Hamburg? As you know, they occupied a portion of Germany. Just about 50 to 60 miles from Hamburg is the city of Lubeck on the border of the Russian occupied area of East Germany. So it was very easy to understand why one or several of the officers were going into the Western world for some private reasons. All of these conversations were made in the Russian language. I am not as good in that language now, but I can still read and understand it.

Lee. — How many planes were involved in the flights over Ararat?

Liedmann. — I should mention that each time they made a mission, or flight, for taking these pictures, there were always three different planes involved.

Lee. — Did he tell you anything else of interest?

Liedmann. — Another interesting point may be could be that we were talking about ancient times and he said: "Have you seen the mammoth that we found in Siberia in 1901 by some sled-dog party, and the dogs started eating the flesh of that mammoth which had green grass in its mouth. If you would like to see it, come with me to Stalingrad." I went with him and saw in that museum the mammoth which was largely preserved.

The Choice of A Companion For Life

By The Editor

The choice of a companion for life is worth far more to our sons and daughters than a few years in college or a university degree. The parents as well as our youth have a great responsibility in this choice. A good education may assure one of a fancy pay check through life but this without the happiness of spiritual values received through the proper choice of a companion are valueless. For this reason Education must be secondary, and the proper choice of your companion come first.

Sins of Our Father's and Mother's Reach To

The Third and Forth Generation

Did you know that the iniquity of the parents is visited upon the off-spring to the "Third and Fourth Generation of THEM THAT HATE ME", and the good traits of pious religious people are also visited upon the offspring to the 3rd and 4th generation. We have this warning given associated with the ten commandments in Exo. 20:5,6. But how few people however remember and consider this in the choice of a companion for life.

Farmers, who run a dairy or breed special stock for beef; poultrymen who raise good laying breeds of chickens, are aware of this same law, and are careful to put it into use, but is sadly forgotten by parents in giving advice to their sons and daughters. The young man and young woman who love their maker and have been raised in a spiritual environment to observe all of this great fundamental law of the Ten Commandments, must not forget verses 5 and 6 of this same law.

What a great blessing it is to have your children with you in serving the Creator, and taking an interest in reading and studying the Bible, asking you questions about different sacred subjects when they are growing up, and being with you at the places of worship, taking part as they find a place. Many people complain about their children drifting with the world and finding no pleasure and taking no part in anything religious.

It is good for the youth to make a choice of their companion from among the Church of God young people. They should attend when possible the youth camp-meetings in the summer season where they can meet those of the faith, but many live isolated without the proper means to attend such gatherings. It may also be found even among those attending summer camp-meetings young people of a worldly breed who have been sent there by a devoted mother because of thier waywardness hoping to reconcile them to the true faith who have a sinful father, and whose traits have been visited upon the daughter, and vice versa. Therefore it becomes very necessary and of the greatest importance to pray much for wisdom and divine direction in making this highly important choice. Make friendship with those whose ancestry back three or four generations through both father and mother, have been religious and taken a part in divine worship, in order to make sure your offspring will be a lasting comfort and pleasure to you through this life, and through the life to come.

... Not Necessarily of the Faith

Many of our people live in isolation far from any of like faith, therefore it becomes necessary for them to choose companions from the general run of young people, but in making this choice be sure, with the help of the parents to find out about the stock, relative to religions. Has the father and mother, grandfather and grandmother, and also back another generation if possi-

THE BUILDING OF THE TEMPLE

JEWISH VIEWS

By Rabbi Mordechai HaCohen

Rabbi Mordechai HaCohen is a Jerusalem-born scholar and the author of various books on Rabbinics, Jewish History and Jewish Holy Places.

The taking of the Old City of Jerusalem by the Israel Defence Forces in the Six Day War was an event of tremendous import for Jews the world over. It was the fulfilment of a millennial dream, restoring the site of the Holy Temple to the jurisdiction of a sovereign Jewish State. Ever since 70 CE, Jews have prayed for the day when they might return to Jerusalem and rebuild its ruins. The liberation of 1967 at last afforded them the opportunity. It also raised an overriding question: Will the Temple be soon rebuilt? To answer it, one must understand the place of the Temple in the Jewish tradition, and examine the halachic — Jewish legal — literature on its reconstruction.

The Temple Mount in Jerusalem has ever been the holiest of holy places for Jewry. Its holiness, intrinsic and eternal, was bestowed upon it by God at the Creation. Tradition has it that this was where Cain and Abel made their offerings, where Noah thanked God for his deliverance, where Abraham prepared to sacrifice Isaac. The Temple, which stood upon its divinely elected site, was regarded by the Jewish nation as its most treasured guerdon, its inner heart. Twice each day, the "Kohanim" (priests), the people's spokesmen to God, brought sacrifices on behalf of Israel, and for all the nations of the world. Thrice each year, on the festivals of Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles, Jews were enjoined to make pilgrimage to the holy place and be spiritually uplifted by its sanctity. The prophets were inspired by the Temple, and many delivered their prophecies nearby. The "Sanhedron" (Supreme Court — Sanhedrin) was in permanent session in the "Office of Gazzit" in the Temple Court, interpreting the "Torah" for all Israelites.

But everything came to a halt with the destruction of the Temple by the Romans and the ensuing dispersion of so many Jews. Yet the Temple was never forgotten in the Diaspora. Not for a moment did Jews, wherever they dwelt, abandon hope and prayer for its restoration and the revival of the sacred liturgy. This is visible in many aspects of Jewish life. For striking example, certain Jewish prayers were formulated in replacement of the Temple's sacrifices. The order of the three daily services of prayer represents a spiritual re-enactment of the daily sacrificial worship of Temple times, and especial festival prayers correspond to the special sacrifices offered on the several occasions. The wording of the prayers, especially on Sabbaths and holydays, reflects the Jews' passionate wish for the re-establishment of the Temple. In the additional service — the "Musaph" — for holidays, God is besought thus:

"Rebuild Thine house as at the beginning, and establish Thy sanctuary upon its site; show us its rebuilding and let us rejoice in its restoration."

And there are other manifestations of such pleas in Jewish ritual. Jews pray facing towards Jerusauem and the Holy of Holies. Parts of every synagogue are designated by the names of the corresponding parts of the Temple. Synagogal appurtenances and furnishings resemble those used in the Temple: the "Aron HaQodesh" (Holy Ark), receptacle of Scrolls of the "Torah"; the "Parokhet", or decorative curtain, hanging over the Ark as did the "Kaporet" in the Sanctuary, the "Ner Tamid" — perpetual light — placed near the Ark as was the "Menorah" or candelabrum in the Temple.

Reminders of the destruction of the Temple abound in Jewish customs. A small section of each home is left unpainted, women may not wear all their jewellery at once, the wedding ceremony includes a gesture of mourning, usually the breaking of a glass by the bridegroom under the canopy. Four fast days of remembrance are observed each year: the most important one, the ninth day of the month of Av, is preceded by a spell of twenty days in the habits of lamentation. To this day, at every midnight save on the Sabbath, certain groups of Jews are wont to bewail the calamity.

One may, then, easily comprehend the intensity and magnitude of the emotion which seized world Jewry when the Temple Mount, accessible again, was once more in devout Jewish hands. But the area was not set aside as the place of a Third Temple. Except for the Western Wall, it was declared out of bounds by the Chief Rabbinate to any Jew.

This injunction was based on the extreme veneration of the Mount. Only Jews who were free of all impurity could enter the Temple, and long and detailed instructions as to purification are given in the Bible. Nowadays, the exact laws of ritual contamination are virtually void, and almost everyone is considered to be ritually tainted. So much for entry to the area.

With respect to the reconstruction of the Temple and the resumption of the sacrificial services, the Chief Rabbinate has chosen to forbid all action, on the grounds that halachic literature furnishes no unequivocal answer to those questions. In fact, seven different approaches may be discerned among halachists.

The first is that of the "Temple of Fire", namely, that mortal men cannot rebuild the Temple. Talmudic sources declare that at some point of future time God will send down a per-ect Temple of Fire from heaven, accomplishing the verse, "the sanctuary, O Lord, which hine hands have established". This notion, choed in many prayers, rests on the belief that the first and second Sanctuaries were destroyed because they were man-made, and, hence, not eternal. The Third Temple, built by God Himself, will last forever.

A second approach, also well-founded in the sources, holds that the Messiah will miraculously rebuild the Temple. With his advent, the laws of nature will be changed and universal peace reign, as it is written:

"and the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the tiger shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them..." — Isaiah 1: 6.

The Messiah also figures prominently in the third approach that of Maimonides, who, in his "Code of Law", writes:

"The Messiah, the King, is destined to reign and renew the Kingdom of David as in days old, to build the Temple, and gather the dispersed of Israel."

But Maimonides, in referring to a Messiah, means a king of Israel who will not come miraculously, but prove himself by his competence in the Law and his devotion to it — which make him a potential Messiah, and by his success in rebuilding the Temple where it originally stood, and his ingathering of the tribes.

An opinion along slightly different lines condones that the sacrifices must be renewed, and at the coming of the Messiah will thereby be started. But Jewish leaders have traditionally opposed this as imprudent. In any event, with access to the Temple Mount barred by rabbinic edict, it is not feasible.

Somewhat similar to the "messianic advent" theories is a fifth one — that the Temple will be rebuilt by a prophet of God. Its advocates maintain that Jewish law does not permit its building or the resumption of sacrifices unless explicit prophetic behests are issued and obeyed, because the criteria needed to undertake either task become known only through divine inspiration that is vouchsafed to prophets. As Rabbi Kook, Chief Rabbi of Israel a generation ago, written in his book "Mishpat a-Cohen (Laws of the Priest):

"The arrangements pertaining to the building of the Temple and the Altar are dependent upon prophecy and divine inspiration."

Other limiting factors, in this approach, are that, before the Temple may be rebuilt, peace must prevail and the majority of the Jewish people dwell permanently in Israel, two conditions not yet near to realization.

In a distinct minority are the members of the Ashkenaz school of thought, who urge reconstruction of the Temple and resumption of sacrifices in the instant future, before the coming of the Messiah. They believe that a careful study of Halachic and historical source material will disclose how to achieve this monumental task gradually, so also the rebuilding of the Temple. They list four stages in the process. The first is a sacrifice offered on the site of the Altar, after the location is determined by the most searching scrutiny. Next, the Temple will be rebuilt to the specification in the Book of Ezekiel and their talmudic interpretations. Then the Messiah will appear, and correct and embellish the structure and instruct as to the offering of sacrifices.

And, finally, the Almighty will lower a celestial Temple of Fire, which will stand within the man-made Temple. All the laws of Nature will be transformed, all creatures find perfection and be fulfilled.

The last opinion embodies elements of other approaches. Its proponents believe that prayer services should be organized on the site of the Temple. They argue that all agree that certain sections of the Temple Mount may be visited in accord with "halacha". They adduce historical precedents as well.

Between 636 and 1,000 Jews worshipped regularly in a synagogue which stood on the site of the Temple. Moreover, during a given period, supervision of the buildings on the Temple Mount was entrusted to Jews. — (See Dr. B. Dinier, "A House of Prayer" and "Study on the Temple Mount During the Arab Era", "Zion", volume 3, pages 54-67; also Dr. S. Schwab, "After the Conquest of Jerusalem by Omar", ibid., volume 20, pages 91-116 et al.) The hope is entertained, then, that the conduct of worship on this hallowed spot will conduce to wider world peace and herald the redemption of Israel and of all mankind, as predicted by Isaiah (LVI, 7).

There is, we see, a plethora of approaches. But one thing emerges unmistakeably. Although there are Jews who favour the rebuilding of the Temple and the resumption of the sacrifices at once, that is not likely to be the course of any Jewish action in the foreseeable future,

THE RUSSIAN INVASION AND THE SIGN OF HIS COMING

Russia's attempt to invade Israel and force her to give up the Old City of Jerusalem is imminent. It is near at hand. Ezekiel 38th chapter. Ezekiel said when this happens "All men on the face of the earth will shake at His presence." verse 20. This surely will be the sign of His coming. In Revelation 6: last few verses, we are told a little more about this world shocking event, when these shaky men will flee to the mountains and cry for them to hide them from His presence. These godless Russian leaders and others of the same craft will get their sin sealed eyes open but too late to repent. When "The Wrath of God" comes the plagues begin to fall, no man is able to enter into the temple in heaven and have his sins forgiven. Rev. 15: 8. Now is the time to pray and get right with heaven.

THE CREATOR PLACED HIS NAME AT JERUSALEM

IN WHAT WAY DOES THIS EFFECT US?

There is just one place on this earth that the Heavenly Father has chose to place His Name, and His Name is Holy! "Hallowed be thy Name". This is a sentence all praying people use over and over in the prayer the beloved Master taught us to pray. — Matt. chap. 6, verse 9.

In the 20th chapter of Exodus, where the Father recorded the Ten Commandments, He speaks of His Name. "In all places where I recorded my Name I will come unto thee and I will bless thee." — Exo. 20: 24.

Then He speaks again of the place where He records His Name thus: "But if ye turn unto Me and [keep] My [Commandments,] and do them, though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of heaven, yet will I gather them from thence and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set My Name there!" — Nehemiah the 1st chapter, 9th verse. From 8:9 to Nehemiah 1:9 = Gidah

WHERE HE SET HIS NAME

"Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord did choose of all the tribes of Israel to put His Name there." — I Kings 14: 21. Also II Chro. 12: 13.

HIS COMMAND

"Into the place where the Lord your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put His Name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek and shall ye come. And thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings and your sacrifices — (offerings) — and your tithe and heave offerings of your hand and your vows, firstlings of herds and your flocks." — Deut. 12: 5, 6, 10, 11.

HIS NAME IS IN JERUSALEM

The Creator is called more than one hundred different Names. Many of them are the names of ancient heathen God's, and we know this is not well pleasing to Him. The Father and the Son each have a Name.

We read in Pro.: "What is His Name and what is His Son's Name, if thou canst tell?" — Proverbs 30: 4.

The Father's Name is found in the word "Jerusalem", as it is spelled in Hebrew it is pronounced "Yah-ru-sha-la-yim". The first part of this word has the abbreviated Name found in Psalms 68: 4 as follows: "Extol Him that rideth upon the heavens by His Name 'Yah' and rejoice before Him." In the first part of this verse where the word: "God" appears, it is the Hebrew word in the text from which the English is translated.

It is far more honourable to speak of our loving Creator as ::Our Father", the same as

His Son did while here on earth. It would not be honouring our earthly father to call him by his surname, neither is it proper to so speak of the Heavenly Father.

The Jews in Israel teach the children in school the Father's Name in the Hebrew, but they do not speak it, in order not to use it in vain, for it is very Holy. They write the Name and then erase it. Some Rabbis speak it only once a year in the synagogues.

The place the Father has chosen to set "His Holy Name" is in Jerusalem, as set forth in these texts, and others.

Since the Old City of Jerusalem is now in the hands of Israel, Gentile times are in reality past. We may expect a scattering few of Gentiles here and there to yet come out of Babylon, but it will rapidly grow less and less. Gentiles are being gathered in bundles, organizations, and headed for Rome.

Local pastors in Gentile lands must pray for, and feed their flocks, strengthening that which remains and under their care. The command to "Feed the Church of God" never was so important and urgent, and these pastors must be well supported with your tithes and offerings, for these men are needed now worse than ever.

Those who have come out and taken their stand for Israel and Jerusalem, also for the true Sabbath which is to be a sign forever, must be strengthened and fed, especially the young people. Hence the pastors of all of these groups must be cared for and supported with tithes, but those living in isolation, should send it to Jerusalem, where the Creator has placed His Name.

It is to this old center, now revived again where He has given His command in the above, and where He has opened and is yet opening great doors wide for its use. There is a great work here to be finished and it is to be a quick work. — Romans 9: 27 and 28.

— Editor

"Bring ye all the tithe into the storehouse that there may be meat in mine house, and prove Me now saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of Heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it." — Malachi 3: 10.

"THE REPORTER" SPEAKS

Please do not bury me in your house somewhere. My MESSAGE about Jerusalem and our SOON COMING KING is not finished. I do not want to die, but must call at home after home yet to visit many good people like you. If you stop me, your blood may be required at my hands as we are told in Ezekiel 33: 6. Please, either take me or pay my fare, just 6 cents to visit someone else. Thank you very much!...

HOW WHEAT GRASS THERAPY WORKS

Let us make this definite statement at the start — we are convinced that we have proven absolutely that our wheat grass therapy is more than a match for any ailment that may afflict human beings or God-guided creatures. Thousands of experiments were conducted directly by us or by groups of medical doctors in Japan, Germany, South Africa, Great Britain and elsewhere in addition to those of our students scattered throughout the civilized world.

The utilization of this juice, fresh and alive, extracted from grass, sprouted from ordinary wheat, seemingly works wonders. It was designated by Dr. G. H. Earp-Thomas, the world's foremost soil expert, as "the richest nutritional liquid known to man."

When this wheatgrass juice is combined with a simple diet, it makes what is apparently an unbeatable combination. The simple diet is utilized merely to keep "unsuitable" food from the body while Mother Nature is doing her repair work. "Unsuitable" food, in all probability, had much to do with bringing on the trouble. Because of the depleted farm soil and the modern processing, our foods are woefully deficient in the nutrients that are needed to maintain normal health in the body.

Therefore, with the addition of the wide variety of minerals, vitamins and trace elements found in the wheatgrass and its juice, Mother Nature is able to bring forth unbelievable miracles in bettered health. Our work has completely proven our assertion that every disease and ailment, which can afflict human beings and God-guided creatures, arise from one fundamental cause. This starting point is the lack, in the afflicted body, of certain nourishment the Almighty expected it to obtain.

In other words, the food eaten while seeming to be good food, lacks certain elements Mother Nature must have to complete her repair work within the body. She, therefore, creates a "hidden hunger", which makes the sufferer eat more food, in which she hopes the missing elements will be found. And this overloading of the digestive system with too much food creates other ailments and upsets.

The wheatgrass juice, however, seems to sing to the stricken body at least a LITTLE all the 103 elements which make up the "dust" of the earth from which the Bible tells the Almighty fashioned our bodies.

As many leading scientists have proclaimed: the rootlets of grass, sprouted from ordinary heat, seem to have been given a selectivity hereby they find, even in barren ground, a elements than any other type of vegetation. That is the only commonsense explanation that can be given for the universal betterment of the health of all sufferers who have religiously followed the wheatgrass therapy without the slightest deviation.

It is the reason that we KNOW that vivisection can now safely be replaced with this wheatgrass therapy. It is no longer an experiment. It is not based on guesswork and is apparently the TRUE method of healing human abnormalities which you can prove yourself.

This concept was conceived over 2,400 years ago by the Greek philosopher, Hippocrates, who wisely said: "Let food be thy medicine." Unfortunately, Hippocrates, who used wheat and other grain, did not realize the healing possibilities of the wheatgrass and its juice, used as a food.

During our years of experimentation, more than three hundred and fifty specific diseases have come under our direct observation, including many of those that medical science now deems to be "incurable". All of our many experiments — without a single exception — where the wheatgrass therapy was applied to its fullest, blossomed with bettered health and even the most stubborn, conditions of many, many years standing, indicated conclusively that at long last the road was open to permanent recovery. Among the most difficulty were leprosy, cancer, multiple sclerosis, etc., etc., and in every instance these findings were verified by medical clinics abroad.

Yet the whole process is so simple, any ailing individual can have the full benefit of it in his or her own home, without expert supervision. This can be done with confidence because at a Chicago convention of medical doctors, scores of them assembled in the lecture room admitted unanimously that the taking of reasonable amounts of this wheatgrass juice each day could not complicate or worsen any known ailment of human beings.

To obtain the consensus of opinion of medical doctors everywhere is the reason we are seeking thousands of new members of our National Human League. It is absolutely necessary that an "unbiased, public, official test" be made of the wheatgrass therapy immediately in this country for all the world to see.

To enable the public to better understand what we are doing and the effectiveness of the wheatgrass therapy as an assistant to Mother Nature, let us look over some of the results that have been achieved at "the Mansion" and "the Homestead" with various types of abnormalities in human beings.

Questions And Answers

QUESTION.

Don't you think that frequent visits should be made between different groups of the Church of God — 7th day to encourage one another?

ANSWER.

There is not enough difference between any of these groups to keep them separate, and they should all treat each other as Brothers and Sisters, for the Creator is their father and they are of the same family. They should all be fellowshipping together, as one big group.

QUESTION.

Do you think it is wise to encourage members of the Church of God to name their children Jewish names?

ANSWER.

There are no Jewish names that I know of. As the Jews in general are Bible minded, they naturally have taken mostly Bible names for their children. Their names are therefore Bible names, and why not follow this excellent example and also select Bible names for our children?

QUESTION.

Do you people observe the law of the clean and the unclean meats, as set forth in Lev. the 11th chapter? — If so why, when the New Testament tells us that it is not that which entereth into the mouth that defiles the man, but what proceedeth from the heart? — Matt. 15: 11.

ANSWER.

The clean and the unclean law laid down in the Bible is for man's own good. All meats declared as unclean are health destroying and life shortening. This is a proven fact, tested many times. Those meats are forbidden. Then when a person refuses to obey and covets and purchases these forbidden meats with the intention of eating them; this disobedient act proceeds from the heart. It is not the actual eating that defiles.

When Eve ate the forbidden fruit she was defiled before she reached the forbidden tree; and even before she plucked the fruit. Her sin proceeded from the heart. Many drunkards use this same scripture for an excuse in drinking liquor. This, however, produces wrong thoughts in the drinker, and acts of sin.

QUESTION.

Where is the headquarters of the "Church of God" — 7th day in the United States? We notice in the History that it says the headquarters is in West Virginia. Is this true?

ANSWER.

When the first edition of the History of the True Church was printed over thirty five years ago, that was considered by both of the authors to be the headquarters. Since that time, however, in carrying out a resolution passed officially at a "General Conference" of that body, and also a resolution passed by the "General Conference" of the Church of God with headquarters in Missouri, to establish "World Headquarters" at Jerusalem, just as soon as conditions would permit, that step was taken. We regret that neither of these groups have thus far officially approved of the move which they had previously authorized to be done. We are still hoping, however, that both of them will yet do so. All people everywhere who read and believe in the divine inspiration of the Holy Scriptures know this is the only place where the Creator has "Chosen to Place His Name", or made choice of for the headquarters of His Remnant people. "the Daughter of Jerusalem", given the name "Church of God" just 12 times in the New Testament, and "the Daughter of Jerusalem" in 2 Kings 19: 21; Isa. 37, 22; Lamentations 2: 13, 15; Micah 4: 8; Zeph. 3: 14; Zech. 9: 9; and other places.

Where He placed His Name I Kings 14: 21; 2 Chronicles 12: 13; and Deut. 12: 3, 6, 10 and 11.

cancer in and out of hospital for four years. Last one showed her lung too badly affected for cutting and she was given up to die. Her family brought her to Boston as "the last hope". Father almost afraid to leave as he "might never see her alive again."

The wheatgrass therapy seemed to work miracles. Three weeks later this girl who could hardly walk on arrival, went to the airport alone for her trip back home. Within that period from a discouraged, weeping child she changed into a serene, hopeful and cheerful adult.

This is only one of many startling testimonies.

CANCER — BLOOD — LEUKEMIA: This is a type of cancer that has appeared in great numbers lately. Medical doctors deem it "incurable". We have found in numerous instances — WITHOUT A SINGLE EXCEPTION — that when the wheatgrass therapy is followed religiously, Mother Nature seems to handle the situation satisfactorily. Many "doomed victims" are alive after three to four years and in vigorous health. One (doomed "in three weeks" by three cancer specialists in a famous Boston hospital, is working in his garden three years later. There are many others.

MEMORIES OF PAST EXPERIENCES IN THE GOSPEL WORK

By THE EDITOR

FINDING "THE CHURCH OF GOD" AT EUREKA, SOUTH DAKOTA, 1923

As Eureka is on a branch railway line, and there was no bus service in those days, I was advised ahead of time, to buy my ticket to Roscoe. Arriving there in the early afternoon, I was met by a number of the older brethren, and escorted in their car to Eureka. The Eureka Church of God at that time was out in the country, a few miles north of town. Arriving there that afternoon, although a working day, I found the church surrounded by cars. It was quite a surprise indeed to find those people so deeply interested in religious matters to pack that church in the mid afternoon, to meet a man they had learned was also of the Church of God faith, similar to themselves.

It was indeed to me, a very happy occasion, Old Brother Brennise, the father of John Brennise; Old Brother Straub, the father of Elder E. A. Straub; Old Brother Dais, the father of the Elder Dais brethren now at Eureka and Lodi, and also Old Brother Kiesz, the father of Elder Chris Kiesz, all noble pius men, pioneers of the Eureka Church of God, but outside of a few scattered friends and relatives, they knew nothing of the world-wide movement of a people of their same faith.

Like the other groups previously mentioned these dear brethren had also been led into deeper truth, and clearer light by the Blessed Holy Spirit, through the WORD. That precious afternoon meeting I shall never forget. There was Brother Chris Kiesz at the organ and such singing you seldom hear. They asked me to tell them about the Church of God. I took the floor and commenced. For nearly three hours they kept me there behind the pulpit answering their questions and giving them the scriptures why?

They had the advantage for I did not know what they believed on this or that, but every question put to me that day was answered by the Bible which required some time. When I finished each question they gave their heads an affirmative nod, or said Amen.

It was indeed a wonderful meeting, and proved the working power of the blessed Holy Spirit, to bring people into unity of the faith when studying the same precious Bible.

There was not a single point upon which they disagreed with the main body of the church scattered over the world. It was a repeated confirmation of the fact that the Spirit through the Lord, will lead people into all truth, when given the right of way, as had been in their case.

Hundreds of such instances are on record, where similar groups have been found, and are still being located all over the world.

Brother Jacob Dais dreamed of being out in a big body of water with a number of the other leading brethren of the Eureka church in a small boat. Several of them had hold of the oars, but for some reason they were just going around and around, in a circle and were not getting anywhere. They all understood their plight, and did not know what to do.

Then he looked away and saw a big ship coming toward them. The ship kept coming right along until it came right to where they were. Then someone on the ship threw out a big chain, and they fastened the little boat to the big ship, and took us along with them. He told the people the interpretation.

He said: We have been here all alone and have never gotten anywhere, but have been going around and around. Now this man has come and informed us about the people all over the world of the same faith. We never knew about the Church of God before he came, and this church is the big ship that is going to take us right along with it."

The following summer the Eureka brethren purchased a big tent for camp-meetings. Their first camp-meeting was held on the church grounds there, and it was a wonderful meeting. Many came from other places and several of our ministers were there. This was the beginning of their camp-meetings, and they have not missed one season since, but have held these big meetings every summer with an increasing interest and attendance. These brethren have come to other camp-meetings and added interest as well as financial help.

Elder Kiesz deceased, who played the organ at the first meeting where we met them (this I told you about in the previous issue), has served on the board of 12 for a number of years, and carried on evangelistic meetings in many states.

Elder E. A. Straub, who was converted and baptized following the time of our first meeting with them, has also held important positions and is a man of influence and ability, having traveled in most of the states in evangelistic work. Elder John Kiesz is another among them who has also held important positions with the church served also at the head of the school Stanberry, Missouri, and is Pastor at St. Louis.

Many of the Eureka people moved to Lodi, California, among these we find Brother Jacob Dais and family. His dream surely came true, and this church group has been affiliated with, and has helped much in sending forth the light and shown people the way, not just around Eureka as in former days, but its beams have reached to all parts of the earth.

While they do not all affiliate with one particular group with which they at first became connected, because various groups have been formed and are issuing different publications from different parts of the world, and thus reaching many more people with the truth, yet they all qualify according to Rev. 12: 17 and Eph. 2: 14, 15, as the REMNANT people.

Like the various different groups among the Jews in Israel, all of which fellowship together and are Jews. So it is with these various groups, while there are slight differences, yet they are "the Church of God", and must fellowship as such, for they are ONE according to the Saviour's prayer of St. John 17th chapter.

Leaving Eureka, South Dakota, we went south to Bassett, Nebr., where during the previous fall we had laboured with another minister by the name of Milton Grotz, and a large church had been set in order, of over one hundred members.

Plans were well under way for the building of their new church house, and they were all encouraged and made to rejoice over the good news we were able to give them concerning all of these different groups of the same faith we had been able to locate by the guiding hand of Him who has promised to be with his children, "Lo even to the end of the World."

SHAMEFUL DEFAMATION ON JUDAISM

ABRAHAM, MOSES WERE "MYTHS"

LONDON (AP). — John Allegro, the Dead Sea Scrolls scholar who stirred a controversy by claiming Christianity had been founded by a mushroom-worshipping cult, struck at the foundations of the Jewish religion.

The 49-year-old university lecturer on the Old Testament contends that the Patriarchs — including Abraham and Moses — were myths. This is the theory he put forward in a new book, "The Chosen People".

Jewish history between 587 B.C.E. and 70 C.E. when the Romans destroyed Jerusalem is described as a constant conflict between "moderates" who wished to mingle and merge with other races and cultures, and religious fanatics. The fanatics often acted under the influence of the mushroom drug and saw themselves as "the chosen ones", he says.

"The barriers that had been erected to safeguard the purity of Judaism have served ever since to provoke the envy, distrust and hatred of the Gentile world."

Remarks. — To our surprise the above with some more added slime to lower the dignity and degrade the holy character of these great men, was published in "The Jerusalem Post" recently.

In defense of the honour and character of these holy leaders of mankind, we have published the following paid answer in three issues of "The Jerusalem Post". To the date of going to press we have not received an answer.

CHALLENGE

I herewith ask Mr. John Allegro to meet me in a friendly discussion to defend his claim that Moses and Abraham were myths, led by a mushroom stimulant, as you report them on page 2 of last Tuesday's "Post".

I also request the city of Jerusalem to give us free of cost a large hall in Jerusalem, the Holy City, in defence of the BIBLE in this "Land of the Bible" to hold this discussion.

A. N. DUGGER — P.O.B. 568,
Editor of "Mt. Zion Reporter"

Our plan is to have the above printed in 32 Israel papers and magazines, unless he meets the issue, and appears before the public to openly defend his position in the face of opposition.

The reporter for the "London Times" came to see us and is making a write up for the London Daily. We will report more in the next "Reporter".

BROTHER HAUGHTON PASSES AWAY

To Pastor G. S. Thompson, Overseer.

Our late beloved Brother C. Haughton was laid to rest July 28th 1971 after a short illness at his residence, Jackson Tom Trelawny, Jamaica, leaving sister Haughton and children to await the life-giver on that glorious Resurrection morning, praise the Lord.

He was faithful to God until his calling away and to the Church and World Headquarters Jerusalem, Israel.

Under three hours before he passed away his last will and testimony was: "Remember, the Church site I and my wife agreed to give to Pastor George S. Thompson, Overseer of Jamaica, and the Director of the W. I. "FOR" the Church of God 7th Day, Jamaica, with world headquarters Jerusalem, Israel, for the glory and furtherance of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in promoting Israel's work in Jamaica."

There was a fair turn out of loved ones and friends of his district as Elder Royes, of the Joe Hut Church of God 7th Day, officiated in the last rites. He rests from his labour, amen.

SISTER LURA ARMSTRONG

BASSETT, NEBR. —

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dugger,

I am writing for Lura Armstrong, as she passed away on May 21, 1971. She had not been feeling well for some time but had been doitoring. She had a bad heart and was put in hospital on May 19, in the afternoon of her birthday. Her appetite was poor and kept getting weaker.

I want to thank you for the birthday card and pamphlet that you sent her. I know she would have been so happy hearing from you folks. She always spoke so highly of you.

LIFE IN ISRAEL

By EFFIE DUGGER

Shalom to all Reporter Readers who are looking for the Hope of Israel. We are receiving many good letters from all over the world from people who are praying for the peace of Jerusalem. The Father will send the Messiah who will work things out for His glory.

How thankful we are for the peace that continues in the Middle East. The U.S. Secretary of State William Rodgers says, "The U.S. is playing a very active role in a renewed effort to reach an interim Middle East Settlement before the end of the year." It is thought that he recognizes that Mr. Sadat will not take part in peace talks after that time arrives.

In the meantime Israel continues friendly relations with the African nations as usual, hoping to keep the Africans from taking a stand against Israel.

The change of the dollar value has caused a big disturbance all over Europe and here as well. Of course it has the effect of causing more strikes etc. It seems that it will take time to adjust things in an equitable way to suit everyone. Efforts will be made here to protect the low salaried workers as much as possible. One thing here which has complicated things is that there has been a gradual rise in the standard of living.

Is it not strange that Abraham of these days does not think he can live in a tent? Besides a house, he also has to have a car, a television, air conditioning, a refrigerator, etc. It is really astonishing how the number of cars has increased here, the last few years, in Jerusalem.

The school year started on the 2nd of September. Our son's children go to the English school now. He started his older children in the Hebrew school when he first came here. They soon preferred to speak in Hebrew all the time. It was a little odd to have their children speaking a language that the parents did not know so he wants the younger ones to learn English first. In the Hebrew schools they begin to teach the children English in the 5th grade. =

We have been especially busy keeping up with our work. The printing of the books of Daniel and Revelation has taken up a good deal of our attention. It took one week to assemble the English book, here in our living room. Perhaps you can imagine how the papers and boxes were stacked around for a week. Now they are being bound at a shop down town. Another problem will be to find a storage place for them and the ten thousand Bible Home Instructors.

My own problem has been difficult to surmount. It was all concerning the new addresses. About six weeks ago the old typewriter which made the stencils refused to work. We bought another one and it would jump and make spaces up several dozen of addresses. Then we ran out of stencils and had to wait a month for some from Germany. By the time they came, and we got another typewriter there were several hundred addresses to take care of. We get as many as fifty or sixty new names often in one mail now besides the changes of addresses. But now I can be thankful that by tomorrow we will have the ones on hand taken care of. Perhaps I should be thankful that my problems help to stimulate my endeavours.

There has been several guest speakers at the Meeting House during the last month: Elder Orville Wallace, Elder Moshe Ben Shmuel of Israel, Elder Stoneman of Australia, Dr. Liedmann of the U.S., and Elder Aaron Levy. Elder and Sister Wallace expect to be with us during the Feast of Tabernacles with a group from U.S.

Brother and Sister Levy have returned after a long visit in the U.S. We were glad to hear their report on their efforts to interest people in a settlement in Israel. We are confident that they have been blest and will be blest in their efforts to bring people together spiritually. We hope they will prepare a report which we can publish too.

Elder Shoemaker is in New Mexico at the present time, and Brother and Sister Schlenker are still in the U.S. but will be back right away to put the children in school. We surely miss them in the work here, but some of the young ones among us are helping with the correspondence course. There are more than three hundred taking the Rumanian lessons, besides those in Hebrew, French and English, and there are many calls for the lessons in Russian by the incoming immigrants. It is so wonderful to see how different ones are called to help in the work here.

"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth labourers into His harvest." — Matt. 9: 38.

Shalom.

We are well here though the weather now is so very dry, need rain badly. Hope this finds you all well there.

I am the daughter in law (Inez) and Marion is (Lura's son) who is writing this letter.

I just received your letter Saturday and am so sorry to write you this sad news, but knew you would want to know.

I am enclosing a funeral card for you.
Will close at this time.

EARLY AND LATTER DAYS IN ISRAEL

N.B.

Many of our readers have read the little free tract "What Started Us to Israel", which I cannot repeat here, but after that miraculous healing of my wife following my repeated promise to the Almighty if He would heal her that night, we would leave our children and grand-children and go to Israel.

We could not find a room only in the hotel. Had to hire our paper printed 2,000 copies which we sent free to our friends. Soon our money was consumed, room rent, postage, living expenses, printing, etc. Our daughter Mary suggested we go to Galilee and fish for a living. A man here had a house there furnished and vacant. He offered us the key to use it free of charge. We got a license to fish, built a fish trap, but came to Jerusalem monthly to get the papers from the printer, stamp and mail them out.

I taught my children to pay tithes when they were small, and this is what really gave the work a start here. We landed here with only one thousand dollars from the equity on our little home in Oregon.

Our son Andy we left in U.S., was married with two children, living in a house he had just built. He sent us five or ten dollars a month tithes, for a year or so. Also my Sister Mrs. Ora Carpenter and her children sent us their tithes. It was not long, however, until the Almighty laid it upon the hearts of others to support the work here.

One day in Galilee, we received a letter from him with seven hundred dollars. We were greatly surprised how he could do so. He told people in Oregon, he never made any money in his life till he began sending his tithes to daddy.

During the next three years, he sent us three thousand dollars in tithes. This is what gave us a start here. Then he came over, and bought three dunams of land, a little less than an acre, down where some friends live near the sea. This may be the story that is going around that we are buying land here, and piling up money.

After receiving the big draft from our son for seven hundred dollars, we stopped fishing and returned to Jerusalem to our apartment which we had rented for only six months while the owner had left for the summer with his family to Borneo.

Soon after returning we had to move, as we had contracted with him to move at the end of the six months, but we could not find any room. The city was filled full, with many immigrants coming in from mostly the Arab countries.

We prayed and trusted the Heavenly Father in undoubting faith that He would help us. One night, while sleeping, I saw a sign about a foot long and four inches wide come down from the ceiling and hang about the center of the room half way up, with big black letters P.O.B. I knew this surely meant something good. I never went to sleep afterwards, but in the morning sent one of the "Mt. Zion Reporter" to this P.O.B. number. In about ten days, a Jewish believer who often came to see us, called in the afternoon. As we sat together talking, he said: "Elder Dugger, I found a group of people in south Jerusalem holding meetings on the Sabbath, and there were a number of Jews present."

I said: "That is very interesting, I would like to get their address."

Taking a small card from his vest pocket, and handing it to me, he said: "Here is their card."

To my surprise their P.O.B. number was just what the Almighty had shown me in the dream. I said: "This is the very P.O.B. number I saw in dream a few nights ago."

I showed it to my wife, and we walked to the south part of the city that same afternoon to locate them.

Upon meeting the man at the door, and being courteously invited in, I showed him a copy of "The Reporter", and asked him if he received one of these magazines. He said: "Yes, we received one, and we enjoyed it very much." Then I explained how I got his Post Office Box number. This was a good introduction, as they are very spiritual people, Elder and Sister M. A. Kaarby still working with us here.

As my wife Effie was talking to Sister Kaarby in another room, she asked Effie where we lived. In reply she was told that we lived in the west part of Jerusalem, but had to move in a few days and could not find any place to go. Sister Kaarby said: "I met a woman a few days ago who told me she had a place she would rent if she could find someone she knew was all right to rent it to. Elder Kaarby volunteered to take us over and see the place.

We met the lady, a school teacher and a believer, living all alone as her father and mother had both passed away, and it was their old home where she was born and raised. She said soon after meeting us: "You folks remind me of my father and mother." We were received warmly with outstretched arms, and she wanted us to move right in. She went into one room by herself and turned the whole place fully furnished over to us, and would not even receive any rent for six months.

This is now our publishing house and where we have lived ever since, with nine rooms on two floors, and all furnished. This was sixteen years ago.

Now, thanks to the Almighty, we own the place, all paid for, with the papers fixed so it remains property of "The Family of Elohim", to be used for religious work continually

SODOMITES

By Tom Anderson

Lawyer-author Earle Stanley Gardner says: "The average parent today is absolutely ignorant of the type of pornography that is being liberally pushed into the hands of his children. High school kids hang around the book racks where smut is sold like flies around a decaying carcass."

The Supreme Court opened the flood gates by ruling in 1964 that the vile book "Tropic of Cancer" was not obscene. The Court also gave the green light to "Fanny Hill", long-banned intimate play-by-play of the sexual experiences of a prostitute.

Both the Old and the New Testaments repeatedly condemn adultery and homosexuality, but not many modern church leaders do.

At Vanderbilt University this year Elder R. T. McIvenna, director of young adult work for the Methodist Board of Education, spoke on "The Homosexual in Open Society." He declared that homosexuality is a valid way for 2 people to relate to each other that the homosexual has a place and a right to — a place of dignity — in Society. This is a big lie, and the devil's trap.

One prominent preacher recently declared that he would have no objection to marrying two people of the same sex. It is interesting to speculate on the possibilities the wording of the marriage oath would take.

Canon Robert W. Crome, who served for three years as the assistant of Bishop Pike, and who together with about 30 other so-called clergymen formed the Council on Religion and the Homosexual, said: "Laws like this (against Homosexual acts) are just silly."

At Harvard a psychiatrist has proposed "Practise — drinking" to be taught at schools, beginning at the elementary level. Practise sex has been advocated and adopted already.

At some Universities there is agitation to compel the administration to assign boys and girls to the same dormitory rooms. At a Baptist Seminary, the President says that in searching for ministerial students, he now looks for beatniks rather than the usual preministerial student. From recent contacts with some young preachers, I can believe that.

Remarks

Sodomy was one of the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah, that brought down the fire upon those cities, and it is soon to be repeated again upon the wicked immoral, adulterous cities of our time. — II Peter 2: 6.

Destruction is just around the corner, folks, and now is the time for much daily prayer for the power of the Holy Spirit from above, to be prepared and ready for deliverance. — Luke 21: 36.

Nakedness and obscene pictures are an abhorrence to the Almighty as definitely set forth sexual passions besides marriage as intended by the Creator, is a sin. Abho menin

Minni skirts and worse than that, coming out from Paris, with magazines, newspapers, television, exhibits of nakedness is proof of the Sodom age in which we are living.

Read Genesis 9: 22 to 27.

It is reported that a leading pentecostal organization publicly burned this part of Genesis. Surely the Creator is about to take over and rule.

IN TIMES OF PERIL

In times of peril such as these
We find sweet comfort on our knees
While in the secret place of prayer
Where God removes our needless care,
And whispers softly: "Peace, be still,
And yield to Me your heart and will."
Then as we say: "My will is Thine,"
He keeps us by His power Divine.

In times of peril when it seems
That evil comes like raging streams
To drown our faith, our hope, our love
That God is sending from above,
It's quite assuring just to know
That Satan can't our soul o'er throw
As long as God is on His throne,
And we embrace Him as our own...

MANY OF THE PEOPLE BECOME JEWS

During the days of Queen Esther we are told that many people of the land became Jews. — Esther 8: 17.

This was the result of their witnessing again, the miraculous intervening hand from heaven in behalf of the Jews, then scattered over the one hundred and twenty seven provinces of the Babylonian Empire. The failure of Haman in their destruction, and the triumph of the Jews over their enemies, put fear into the hearts of the people, and a realization of a supernatural being, in the heavens, ruling in the kingdoms of men.

The same effect is being witnessed today and many people are again learning — that the Jews still hold a special place in the divine purpose of the Creator. They are choosing Jerusalem, and the primitive religion, as it was in the days of the apostles. They are becoming "Messianic Jews", believing in the Messiah born in Bethlehem, sacrificed on Calvary, buried, resurrected, ascended to heaven and now soon to return as King of kings and Lord of lords. — Revelation 11: 15.

They are also making choice of the Sabbath as their day of rest, blessed by the Creator at Creation, instead of the day of the Sun, born in Babylone, and adopted by Rome.

Many readers of the "Mount Zion Reporter" are making this question a personal study, walking in the light, and rejoicing over this new found truth. Praise His Name.

As in the days of Queen Esther, many people over the world are becoming Jews. — Editor.

THREE KILLED IN REFUGEE CAMPS

A terrorist and two other residents of the Gaza Strip were killed and 16 others were arrested over the week-end during comb-out operations in three refugee camps.

In the afternoon, a known terrorist was shot and killed during a search at Nazla, next to the Jebalya refugee camp. A weapon and a grenade were found on the body.

EXPLOSION AT EX-POLICE CHIEF'S APARTMENT

TEL AVIV. — A small bomb exploded early yesterday morning in front of the Givatayim apartment of the former chief of the Tel Aviv Police District.

The former police chief, Mr. Ya'acov Kaner, of 6 Rehov Gilboa, is currently head of the Tel Aviv department of inspection network.

The explosive charge, estimated to have weighed about half a kilo, went off at 3 a.m. It damaged a first-floor apartment in the three-storey building and destroyed a wall of the building's storage room and several front doors.

No one was reported hurt.

EILAT. — Another 500 new pupils entered the schools here when the school year was opened last week, swelling the 3,700 pupils in local schools and kindergartens who attended before the summer holiday.

HAIFA PLANS FOR 4,200 HOMES IN FIVE YEARS

HAIFA. — THIS city will have to provide during the next five years, beginning 1972, over 4,200 homes, about 800 each year, to rehouse large families, replace condemned homes, and for similar urgent needs, but not including young couples, Mayor Moshe Flie- man said.

The programme includes 300 homes for Arab families (the city has an Arab population of about 7,000). He made it clear that the figures did not include the 230 homes which are needed immediately and belonged to this year's housing programme.

As for young couples, the estimated need was 1,200 during the next five years. Haifa was now "fashionable" as a place where new immigrants want to settle, and an estimated 10 per cent of them were expected to come here. This meant an annual increase of well over 4,000, and if that of the birth rate was added (1.5 per cent a year, or 3,800 births), the combined growth rate was about 8,500 every year.

OVER 100,000 ARABS, DRUSE GOING TO SCHOOL

ACRE. — The number of Arab and Druse pupils will for the first time top the 100,000 mark, with 20,000 new pupils starting school this week. They include 3,500 in state high schools.

Five new schools and 150 additional classrooms are being opened, and the Education Minister has appointed 200 new teachers to cope with the larger number of pupils.

This brings the number of non-Jewish teachers up to 3,300.

A FIFTH-CENTURY SYNAGOGUE IN BEISAN

Three hundred teenagers from Reform synagogues in the U.S. have just completed a dig at a fifth-century synagogue in Beisan. They found a fine coloured mosaic floor with representations of animals, inscriptions and a candelabrum with the word "shalom" below.

A HUNDRED THOUSAND ISRAEL VISITORS

More than one hundred thousand Arab visitors were permitted by Israel to come over from Jordan as visitors during the summer. Most of them have returned home. Many stayed several months. They were amazed at the development of Israel and surprised at the good friendly treatment given them by Israel people. They went back with good reports.

BUILDING IN ISRAEL

There is not another city in the world with so many buildings going up as in Jerusalem. Big tall eighteen and twenty story hotels, etc, are seen rising above the city, in different quarters. As we walk to the house of prayer on Sabbath, about a fifteen minute walk, I counted 27 new buildings going up, most of them being four stories and more.

All over Israel it is about the same. Many new immigrants are pouring in every day. Prophecy is fulfilling. Zion is being rebuilt. — Psalms 102: 16.

MESSIAH — THE IDEAL RABBI — THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL

It is the Messiah that Israel needs — the ideal Rabbi for whose coming they are longing. No other competent rabbi will be found. He, as Jehovah's "anointed", will yet make them "a blessing in the midst of the land." — Isaiah 19: 24-25.

GAZA MAN SLAIN; TERRORISTS BLOW UP CULVERT

GAZA. — The bullet-riddled body of a 35-year-old man was found in the Shati refugee camp, west of here, on Friday morning last week, the army spokesman announced. The shots had been fired with an automatic weapon. Several arrests have been made, it is learned. This has been the second murder in the Gaza Strip this month, as compared with 13 in July and 22 in June.

EGYPT, JORDAN GET SAUDIA AID

AMMAN (Reuter). — Saudi Arabia has announced a new budget providing for £66 m. in financial aid to Egypt and Jordan, it was announced.

Egypt and Jordan received a total of £125 m. in annual subsidies from Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Libya, under decisions of the fourth Arab summit held in Khartoum, Sudan, following the Six Day War.

Saudi Arabia continued to pay its share, but Kuwait and Libya ceased their aid to Jordan as a sign of protest against King Hussein's regime.

MIZRAHI BODY TO RE-EXAMINE "WHC IS A JEW"

A change in the "Who is a Jew" rule for purposes of population registration will be one of the topics on the agenda of the annual meeting of the World Council of the Mizrahi-Hapoel Hamizrahi's "Mishmeret Hatzeira" ("Young People's Division"), opening in Jerusalem last week.

About 60 delegates — from the U.S., Europe and Israel — are expected to call for a change in the law's wording, to include explicitly that conversion must be in accordance with "halacha" to be recognized.

BIG HAILSTONE INJURES GIRL

BRIVE, France (Reuter). A hailstone as big as a grapefruit seriously injured an 18-year-old girl when it fell on her head during a storm near here, police said.

Other huge hailstones, some weighing almost 1.5 kilos, crashed through tile roofs of homes during the storm and destroyed tobacco and other crops in the Varetz region, near this town in south central France.

VISITORS FROM ARAB COUNTRIES CROSS THE JORDAN

A big surprise was in store this week for the 100,000th summer visitor from the Arab countries to cross the Jordan. Mrs. Aline Andoni Berbourt, from Amman, coming with her two children (aged two and four) to visit her sister in Israel, was whisked through controls, and presented with a bouquet for herself and sweets for the tots, by the local military commander.

Some 30,000 of this year's visitors from Arab lands have already completed their six weeks' visit and returned home. Last summer, the total number of visitors was 53,000.

31 COWS KILLED BY MINES IN GOLAN HEIGHTS

KIRYAT SHMONA. — Kibbutz Snir lost 31 cows on Friday last week when its herd went grazing in an old minefield in the Golan Heights. The loss is estimated at IL40,000.

It is learned that a number of cows have been killed on previous occasions when they stepped on mines in their grazing areas.

MORE SOVIET JEWISH IMMIGRANTS ARRIVE

LOD AIRPORT. — A group of Soviet Jewish immigrants arrived here on Friday last week aboard an El Al flight from Vienna. The immigrants include two dentists, radio technicians, an historian and a driver.

CAIRO CHARGES REBUTTED

UNITED NATIONS (Reuter). — U.N. Ambassador Yosef Tekoah on Friday last week wrote to U.N. Secretary-General N Thant stating that Egypt and other Arab states had "instigated and supported a campaign of indiscriminate terror in the Gaza area."

LOANS FOR BEDS

Loans and infrastructure grants will also be made available in an effort to add another 2,000 beds to the 3,000 already existing in camping sites throughout the country. Loans have also been made available to the Youth Hostel Association to help it expand its network by another 750 beds in time for the coming season.

700-800 JEWS LEFT RUSSIA IN JULY

MOSCOW (UPI). — Between 700 and 800 exit visas for Israel have been issued to Jews last month, authoritative sources reported.

An earlier estimate (published in "The Jerusalem Post" recently) of 500 visas in July was based on estimates of Jews flying from here to a gathering point in Vienna, from where they travel to Israel. The sources said that this figure did not take into consideration emigrants from southern Soviet cities, who leave from Black Sea ports.

The sources also denied reports that Jews who have a university education are required to repay the cost of their schooling, about 4,000 rubles ($4,400). They said that the only cost of an emigration visa is 900 rubles ($990), of which 500 rubles is for the renunciation of Soviet citizenship and 400 rubles for the visa.

CAPITAL SABBATH CLASHES IN "LOWER KEY"

Parts of Jerusalem had a tense and noisy Sabbath afternoon as ultra-orthodox zealots and secularists confronted each other, jostling and jeering in Davidka Square. Tempers relaxed somewhat after nightfall however, and although trouble was expected in the Mea Shearim quarter it did not reach serious proportions.

Police detained five persons in Davidka Square around five o'clock.

Earlier, around 4.15 p.m., a few hundred Mea Shearim residents gathered in the square in response to posters calling for a demonstration against Sabbath traffic, which had been plastered around the Capital a few days before. They started spitting and shouting "Shabbes, Shabbes" at passing vehicles, especially Egged excursions buses.

Last clashes were in a lower key than the previous Saturday.

Again, one is disgusted when visiting the large cities of America to see the hard core sex stores selling all manner of filth. Such a store attempted to open here, in Tel Aviv, recently, and was closed because of Orthodox pressure. Let Christians sit up and take notice, the Orthodox of Israel were able to do what is seemingly impossible for the religious leaders of America to do, that is to recognize filth for what it is and force it to comply to laws of decency. The cry of the depraved element of our society for "freedom of the press" and "freedom of expression" is becoming more than ridiculous.

RECORD CITRUS EXPORT CROP

TEL AVIV. — One of every four pieces of citrus fruit exported from the Mediterranean basin comes from Israel, according to Citrus Marketing Board figures.

Record exports of $115m. in 1970-71, from an unprecedented 1.5 m.-ton crop, raised Israel's share of citrus exports by four per cent to 27.4 per cent of the region's exports.

The Board anticipated a crop of about 50 m. cartons in 1971-72, with five to 10 per cent more Shamuti oranges than last year.

1,400 ARRIVE ON FOUR SHIPS

HAIFA. — Four Greek passenger ships brought 1,400 passengers, most of them tourists, to the port on Friday morning last week.

The ships included the s.s. Fiorita, which arrived from Beirut with 400 European tourists, who came for a day as part of a Mediterranean cruise. Most of them left for visit to Jerusalem and Galilee.

The other ships, Apollonia, Hermes and Lindos, brought several hundred young persons, with only a rucksack and a sleeping bag, who came to spend the summer touring Israel. Many of them want to join archaeological digs.

The Hermes also brought 270 round-trip tourists, who are visiting the country for three days and will re-embark this evening.

JEWISH IMMIGRANTS FROM SOVIET

Soviet Jewish immigrants, who arrived at Lod Airport early on Friday, included "olim" from the Baltic States, Odessa, Tashkent, Baku and Samarkand. Two families also came from Poland.

"POOR" U.S. TOURISTS PLAGUE EMBASSIES

Pleading poverty or poor planning, more than 450 young Americans a week are swarming to U.S. embassies in Europe asking for money.

Mostly students between 18 and 24, they came to Europe on a cheap youth-fare ticket, underestimated their expenses and ran out of cash.

"They come hoping to exist on a dollar a day," said Eugene Rosenfeld, a public affairs officer at the Embassy in London. "Often they run out of cash in the middle of the summer so they cash in the return half of their air ticket. Then they're stuck and they come to us for help."

All they usually get is an offer of the phone to call their parents — collect.

"About 25 or 30 kids a day come in saying: 'I have no money so what are you going to do about taking care of me?'"

SOLOMON MINES PROGRESSING TOWARD SELF-SUFFICIENCY

EILAT. — Timna Copper Mines' annual balance sheet presented this month shows a profit before taxes of IL4.2 m., the company's Managing Director, Mr. Uri Wurzburger, announced. In spite of a smaller profit than the preceding year, due to low prices for copper in the world market, the output of ore once again passed the million ton mark, resulting in the export of just under 11,000 tons of pure copper cement.

Progress on the shaft of the new Timna 2 underground mine is now proceeding satisfactorily, Mr. Wurzburger said, and the German company carrying out the project should be able to complete the work on schedule in 1973.

7 HURT, 64 ARRESTED, IN MEA SHEARIM RIOT

In the worst night of rioting in the current anti-bus campaign in the Mea Shearim Quarter, 64 persons were arrested last night and seven injured.

Helmeted police carrying shields broke up turbulent crowds of ultra-Orthodox demonstrators on Mea Shearim Street after Egged buses were stoned. The windshield of one bus was shattered and a 21-year-old woman passenger, Carmela Levi, cut in the face. She was taken to Hadassa Hospital.

Another woman passenger was also injured as were three policemen, a journalist and one of the demonstrators who, police said, was hit by a stone thrown by a man as he was being taken into custody.

Earlier in the day, some 500 religious demonstrators from Mea Shearim gathered at the Egged garage near the entrance to town to ensure that no bus left before the end of Sabbath. The demonstrators shouted "shabbes" at passing vehicles. When they interfered with traffic, police said, the crowd was dispersed.

INDIAN GRATITUDE TO ISRAEL

Sir, — I cannot find suitable words to express and convey to the people of Israel my heartfelt admiration, appreciation and above all gratitude for the humanitarian and timely help and assurance of further help by Israel to our country to tide it over in the difficult situation created by the influx of refugees from Pakistan following the brutal massacre conducted by Pakistan's army. The pity is that the big nations, like Russia, America, France, England, etc., remain silent in the face of this mass butchery in which thousands of innocent people lose their lives every day.

Only people like you, who have endured even worse sufferings and afflictions, can correctly assess the sorrows and suffering of others.

I am one of thousands in this country who is much aggrieved by the unfriendly attitude adopted by our Government in the past, with regard to the West Asian crisis. At the same time, we consider your struggle as a holy one because it is the struggle of an afflicted people for its existence. Therefore, even if the whole world, not only the Arabs, came against you, you would not be defeated so long as the Lord, whose chosen people you are, is with you.

K. O. Joseph

Trichur, India, August.

EXIT VISAS FOR 22 GEORGIAN FAMILIES

TEL AVLV. — Another 22 families from Soviet Georgia have received exit visas to Israel, Israel Radio reported.

They were among the 36 heads of families who conducted a hunger strike in the public telegraph building in Moscow several weeks ago, the broadcast said.

The radio added that the other 14 families did not receive visas, despite official promises, and a few years ago they were summoned to the police and told they would be wise to wait their turn quietly.

500 YOUNG COUPLES LISTED FOR HOUSING

Some 500 young couples have registered since last week at the Jerusalem Municipality for apartments under a special building programme expected to provide 100 apartments for young couples each year.

The programme, agreed upon by the Contractors' Association, calls for small apartments to be built on the ground floor of existing buildings supported by columns. Registration is to continue through September 14.

CONGRESSMAN FEARS PRESSURE ON ISRAEL

WASHINGTON (INA). — Rep. Benjamin Rosenthal, Democrat of New York, has told Secretary of State William Rogers that he fears the U.S. is bearing down on Israel to obtain "one-sided concessions" from her in the American efforts to achieve a settlement in the Middle East.

In a letter to Mr. Rogers made public by the Congressman's office, Mr. Rosenthal wrote: "The quest for peace must not be made blindly, overlooking the importance of maintaining the power balance among the nations involved."

THE LAST PLAGUES ARE NEAR AT HAND

FLORIDA PLAGUED BY RED TIDE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP). — The worst outbreak of red tide in Florida waters has left miles of Gulf Coast beaches littered with dead fish and many tourist-related businesses in a deep slump.

The red tide is a plant-like organism. It collects in patches and tints the water reddish-brown.

A toxin put off by the organism as it dies paralyzes fish which come in contact with it. It is not harmful to humans unless they eat fish or shellfish which have ingested the poison.

Murky waters of the latest outbreak stretch 100 miles, from St. Petersburg south to Fort Myers.

Resort motels report empty rooms and cancellations as tourists move inland to escape the stench of rotting fish.

Costs $10,000 Daily

St. Petersburg officials estimate the cost of disposing of dead fish at $10,000 a day. More than 500 tons were collected last week.

1,400 SOVIET ICBMs TO AMERICA'S 1,000

WASHINGTON (AP). — The director of the Foreign Policy Research Institute here, Dr. William Kintner, has told Congressman that the Soviet lead in intercontinental missiles could force a U.S. President into the position of having to launch a nuclear first-strike or give in to Soviet demands in a crisis.

Dr. Kintner said the Soviets have increased their missiles from 1,100 to 1,900 during the current U.S.-Soviet arms limitation talks.

150 NEW IMMIGRANTS

150 immigrants arrived last week at Lod Airport: 85 from Iran, 45 from France and the remainder from the U.S. Many of the newcomers in this group were young people with small children. They were sent to various absorption centres around the country.

LIFE TERM FOR MAHANE YEHUDA BOMB BLAST

LYDDA, ^{Lida} The man who parked the "infernal machine" that killed 12 persons in a crowded Jerusalem market three years ago was sentenced last week to life imprisonment by a military court here.

Ahmed Hassan Zomorrod, a 37-year-old painter from East Jerusalem, was one of the two Fatah members who bought a used Morris commercial van, filled it with explosive and petrol, and parked it in Mahane Yehuda on November 22, 1968, a Friday. The car blew up at 10 a.m., killing a dozen persons and injuring 53 others. Of the casualties 19 remained permanent invalids.

The blast also caused serious damage to shops along Rehov Agrippas.

One woman's head was blown off, and went through the roof, and out into the alley.

SOVIET JEWS TELL THANT: "ISRAEL OR DEATH"

UNITED NATIONS (Reuter). — Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah on Wednesday last week handed U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant a letter signed by 531 Soviet Jews appealing for U.N. help to enable them to go to Israel.

Mr. Tekoah said the letter (bearing the signatures of Jews from the Georgian Soviet Socialist Republic, came into his possession only a few days ago. It asked U Thant to place on the agenda of the coming U.N. General Assembly the question of the situation of Soviet Jews who wished to go to Israel.

ble, been religious, associated with some line of religion taken an interest in church, and these things of a sacred nature. Be sure that the bad traits just as the Bible tells us will be visited upon the children to the third and the fourth generation. Heed this solemn warning incorporated in this eternal law of the ten commandments and be blessed with children who love our Creator.

Children who possess by nature the sins of the parents, often after sowing their wild oats, and bringing grief and unhappiness to their parents, are through prayer and other means converted later in life and prepared for the Kingdom.

This was our teaching to our son and three daughters, who all sought their father and mother's advice in making friends with young people. As a result they all have religious children taking an interest in church, and are a great blessing to us and to their fathers and mothers. I remember when our daughter, Orabelle, named after my mother and my sister, came and asked me what I knew about the family of the young man who began paying attentions to her. I knew them all, on back for several generations. I told her that this boy was of good stock, and from a long strain of religious minded people. They now have ten children, and live at 448 Chase St., Walla Walla Washington, all happy, and the children take an active part in the church. Her husband Victor Youngs is also a minister.

Our two youngest daughters Mrs. Gordon Fauth and Mrs. Sammie Fauth both live in Toppenish Washington, and their children take an interest in religious work.

Our son Andy lives near us here and his children attend prayer meetings and also Sabbath meetings regularly.

and not to become the personal property to heirs.

It is indeed marvelous how the Heavenly Father has led us and directed His work here. Praise His Holy Name.

Besides our regular printing work of "The Reporter" monthly, the "Messenger", "Children Friend", Lesson Quarterlies", and tracts to keep the ministers supplied over the world, we have just hired ten thousand Bible Home Instructors printed half in Hebrew and half in English. The English book has about 200 pictures to illustrate the subject, and over 500 hundred pages. Then we have printed twenty-four thousand of the book of Daniel and Revelation, half in Hebrew. They cost us one Israel pound twenty, for binding alone, besides paper and printing. Also we owe ten thousand pounds yet to the binding and printing of the Instructors. We have not been able to get our offset press yet, because we lack considerable to make before taking it from where it is. This is the way we are piling up money.

We have the Bible Correspondence Course of 44 lessons going in four languages. As it is free this is a big expense yet. Some are beginning to send in a little as they finish the course. Urgent calls come in from Israel for the course in Russian for the Russian immigrants. Also in German and Spanish, but we do not have the money to start it. We have to hire the lessons printed outside because our printing presses are for large sheets. The new machine we need money to get, is for this work, and for printing colors. It is a rapid running press that will handle small size like we have in the Bible Course. Early and Latter Days in Israel.
